60 injured in New York building blast

NEW YORK (AP) — About 60 persons were injured today when an explosion, tentatively attributed to a gas accumulation in a commercial building, rocked the East Side of Manhattan not far from the United Nations.

Three Asian diplomatic missions in the neighborhood and hundreds of sleeping residents were shaken by the 6:58 a.m. explosion, which shattered windows for blocks around.

While firemen worked in the building, an anonymous caller telephoned police and said a bomb was set to go off in the building.

Fire Commissioner John O'Hagan cleared his men out as a precaution.

O'Hagan said 59 persons had been taken to hospitals. He said he saw about two dozen treated at the scene but did not know whether they were hospitalized afterwards.

The blast ripped the 26-story commercial structure and touched off a fire. But the injured persons were neighboring residents, principally the dazed occupants of Envoy Towers, a luxury apartment house adjoining the blast site.

O'Hagan said there were three possible causes of the blast — gas, inflammables or explosives — but told newsmen: "Evidence points to natural gas as the cause of the explosion."

He said a number of persons said they had smelled gas before the blast, but evidently no complaint was made.

He said there appeared to be no structural damage to the Envoy Towers building — "It's a matter of replacing windows for the most part," he said.

It was not known whether any persons were in the commercial building when the blast occurred.

The Envoy Towers, 300 E. 46th St., is the address of the Nepalese consulate general and the Nepalese U.N. Mission.

The severely damaged commercial building runs through the block between First and Second avenues to 45th Street.

The Indonesian and Laotian mission on East 45th Street were reported damaged by the force of the blast.

Bellevue Hospital, where 35 of the injured were taken, reported five persons seriously hurt with deep lacerations and bruises. The others were treated for lesser cuts and bruises and smoke inhalation, the hospital reported.

A resident of Envoy Towers, J. V. Hill, said he was awakened by the blast, which blew venetian blinds 25 feet across the room to an opposite wall and moved chairs and bookcases across the apartment.

Wartime waif, 2 U.S. GIs reunited after 32 years

NEW YORK (AP) — Greta Jean was only 8 in 1942 when her life was shattered in wartime England. Her mother died and her sister evacuated, Greta-Jean was befriended by Harry and Smitty, two American GIs.

She never forgot their kindness, and on Sunday she and Harry and Smitty and their wives got together again in an unlikely reunion spurred by an emotional letter she wrote.

Remembering the kind things Harry and Smitty had done for her three decades ago, Greta Jean Jolliff, who now is the mother of three, reached out for them recently in a letter to "The Editor of the American Newspaper with the Widest Circulation."

The letter went to the New York Daily News, which published it. Publicity from the touching message reached Moksha Robert Wendell Smith and Harry Littlefield.

Judge's decision idles 3,100

SILVER BAY, Minn. (AP) — Two northeast Minnesota communities faced the prospect of becoming little more than huge welfare towns today as their main employer, the Reserve Mining Co., found itself shut down.

Silver Bay and Babbitt, company towns that are the respective homes of Reserve's processing plant and taconite mine, were said to have 95 percent of their working populations affected by a federal judge's order to shut down Reserve because of pollution into Lake Superior.

Reserve, which produces 15 percent of the iron ore used in the nation's steelmaking blast furnaces, was ordered shut down Saturday by U.S. District Judge Miles Lord. He said the pollution of 67,000 tons of rock wastes a day into Lake Superior was endangering the health of five communities in Minnesota and Wisconsin which draw their drinking water from the lake.

In all, 3,100 persons who earn $34 million a year are out of work in the two towns whose combined population is 6,500. Officials in the towns said virtually every one else who worked was there because of Reserve. The towns' tax base is Reserve, and they also face the prospect of being wiped out.

Lord said he had considered the tremendous economic impact of his decision, and said such an impact was not more important than the health of thousands of persons. Minnesota Gov. Wendell Anderson said Lord's decision was courageous and necessary.

The company said it would appeal.

Odd ball still puzzles scientists

NEW ORLEANS, La. (AP) — The origin of a 22-pound stainless steel ball found in Florida remains a puzzle, but "it's a nice, pleasant brain teaser," says an expert on unidentified flying objects.

Dr. J. Allen Hynek, chairman of the Department of Astronomy at Northwestern University in Evanston, Ill., and former adviser to the Air Force on UFOs, was one of five scientists who examined the ball here over the weekend.

Newsmen also looked at it, shook it and heard a faint rattle.

Terry Matthews, 21, of Jacksonville, Fla., who found the ball near his home last month, brought the ball here for inspection. He claims the ball, which is 8 inches in diameter, has moved by itself and made strange noises.

Smith, 56, and Littlefield, 61, who lived within 90 miles of each other in Washington State without realizing it, recalled the grief-stricken waif they had cared for and arrangements were made through the News for a reunion. Smith and Littlefield arrived with their wives at Kennedy Airport on Sunday in time to greet Mrs. Jolliff and her husband as they deplaned from a flight from London.

"Everything has been wonderful and it is fantastic," said Mrs. Jolliff, who turned 41 today. She is married to a railroad electrical technician.

"It's like something out of a movie," said Littlefield, a civil service heavy machine operator from Bellingham, Smith, a lawyer and real estate developer from Edmonds, said the incident was "so long ago I had nearly forgotten about it. I never ever expected to hear from her."

and Lord set another court session for today. Among other actions expected today is a report from the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers, which was ordered by Lord to come up with an immediate plan to guarantee clean and safe drinking water for the five towns, including the city of Duluth.

Reserve is owned jointly by two steel companies — Armco and Republic. The two said they had enough iron ore stockpiled to continue normal operations for a while, but said they were looking for alternate sources.

But Lord's order, handed down Saturday in Minneapolis, provides that Reserve Mining cannot reopen until it meets all state and federal pollution standards. That means construction of an on-land treatment plant which Reserve said during a nine-month trial would cost $400 million and take several years to complete.

Watergate enters Ohio politics

By The Associated Press
Both Democrats and Republicans have latched onto the issue of Watergate to slay their political opponents as the primary campaigns around the state warm up.

John Glenn, seeking the Democratic nomination for the U.S. Senate, and Franklin County Prosecutor George Smith, running for the Republican nomination as attorney general, were examples over the weekend.

Glenn used Watergate to attack his opponent, U.S. Sen. Howard M. Metzenbaum, a Cleveland millionaire.

"With public confidence in government officials deeply eroded—in large part because of the manipulations of campaign funds associated with Watergate—it is absolutely essential that candidates be completely open and forthright about accounting for every penny received and spent," Glenn said.

The former astronaut added, "Yet Howard Metzenbaum has set up eight dummy committees to handle his campaign war chest. A state law recently passed by the legislature will make Howard's eight committees illegal before the general election."

Glenn urged his opponent to "get in step with the state law."

Meanwhile, Republican Smith, who faces opposition from two others in the primary, lashed out at his possible Democratic opponent in the fall, Atty. Gen. William J. Brown.

Smith said, "The very evils which bred Watergate are now boiling in the state Attorney General's office."

The GOP candidate called Watergate "an outrage which will live in degradation as long as history is written" and added, "Political shenanigans at the office of the Ohio Attorney General parallel that of those officials indicted from Watergate."

Tornadoes slashed through Oshkosh, Wis., on Sunday, damaging more than 400 homes and prompting the state's acting governor to declare a state of emergency.

An elderly woman and an infant were killed as twisters touched down in a 35-mile stretch through four counties from Oshkosh south to Lomira.

Tornadoes also touched down in Texas and Illinois on Sunday, but Wisconsin was the hardest hit.

The Wisconsin tornadoes struck about 4 p.m.

A 74-year-old Campbellsport woman was killed when a tornado demolished her mobile home and a 5-month-old baby was killed when a tornado sent a tree crashing onto the car in which he was riding.

Property damage was most severe in Oshkosh, but no deaths were reported in the city. "It's miraculous that nobody got killed," said City Manager Gordon Jaeger. "The damage has got to be in the millions."

"You could see roofs flying through the air," an Oshkosh policeman said.

About 20 persons were reported injured in the four-county area hit by the tornadoes.

Secretary of State Robert C. Zimmerman, acting as governor, declared a state of emergency and sent National Guard troops to help Oshkosh authorities clean up and keep sightseers out.

In northern Texas, tornadoes and severe thunderstorms injured eight persons and caused widespread property damage.

Tornadoes in northern Illinois damaged about 20 homes and injured a few persons at Polo, while another touched down nearby at Stillman Valley. No major damage was reported.

Meanwhile, the danger of flooding still hung over Minot, N.D., but officials expressed optimism that the Souris River could be contained by present dikes.

The U.S. Army Corps of Engineers worked to complete two new channels and another dike. More than 3,000 persons were evacuated from a residential area on the flood plain as a precaution.

The river was expected to crest Thursday at about three feet above flood stage.

Nixon told of O'Brien tax audit

WASHINGTON (AP) — John Ehrlichman has admitted to Senate Watergate committee investigators that he briefed President Nixon on an audit of former Democratic party chairman Lawrence F. O'Brien's tax returns.

This was disclosed in a memo sent to members of the committee April 1 by its assistant chief counsel Terry Lenzner. The Associated Press has obtained access to the memo.

Lenzner's memo also discloses that committee investigators still are pursuing the theory that the original Watergate break-in at Democratic National Committee headquarters may have been motivated by concern that O'Brien knew of a $100,000 campaign contribution from Howard Hughes.

The Hughes money was given President Nixon's close friend C.G. "Bebe" Rebozo in two installments in 1969 and 1970.

At the time of the break-in, O'Brien was serving as an unpaid consultant for the Hughes interests. He had previously been paid for this work and the North Dakota-South Dakota state line over the weekend. About 40 persons were evacuated from the flood plain of Oak Creek. One man drowned near McLaughlin on Saturday when he attempted to drive on a bridge.

Three to four inches of rain within a few hours caused flash flooding near Hot Springs National Park and Little Rock, Ark.; Cuba, Mo.; Greenville, Tex.; and extreme southeastern Oklahoma.

Meanwhile, President Nixon's chief domestic affairs adviser said the administration was not presently considering a tax cut.

Kenneth R. Cole Jr., interviewed Sunday on the NBC program "Meet the Press" said that a tax decrease "at this particular point in time will inflame" inflation, rather than solve economic problems.

He repeated the administration's belief that the economy will begin to improve in the second half of the year.

Humphrey, chairman of the Joint Economic Committee, also advocated creation of new public service jobs for the unemployed as well as a permanent agency to monitor and counter inflation.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey has joined two other key Senate Democrats in calling for an income tax cut to offset the impact of inflation and "stimulate the economy through consumer demand."

The Minnesota Democrat urged Sunday that Congress enact a tax cut to help low- and middle-income families faced with steep living costs "in the midst of a recession."

Humphrey's tax cut proposal came after Sens. Edward M. Kennedy, D-Mass., and Walter F. Mondale, D-Minn., had proposed taxes be cut by $5.9 billion, mainly through increasing the personal exemption on taxable income from $750 up to $825.

For a family of four, with taxable income of $8,000 to $12,000, the increased exemptions would mean a tax savings of about $106 at current tax rates. With taxable income of between

On Thursday, the deadline for an answer to the House Judiciary Committee's subpoena for 42 tape recorded conversations, Nixon is scheduled to address a regional economic council in Jackson, Miss.

On May 3, one day after a response is due on special Watergate prosecutor Leon Jaworski's subpoena for tapes of 63 conversations, Nixon is to make a public appearance in Phoenix, Ariz.

Although White House spokesmen won't publicly disclose the President's plans, indications are mounting that Nixon will stop short of supplying the House committee with all the subpoenaed material. One aide has said some of the conversations were never recorded and that others deal with national security matters.

According to reliable reports, the public relations campaign is intended to convince Americans that Nixon's response to the committee request is, in the words of one official, "comprehensive and conclusive."

In recent days, Nixon aides reportedly have been completing transcripts of the subpoenaed tapes and working on a lengthy document that White House officials contend will prove the President's innocence of any Watergate wrongdoing.

Whether the document will be released publicly, or merely turned over to the committee, has not been disclosed.

Meanwhile, Sen. Charles Percy, R-Ill., told a nationwide television audience that he continued "to see reluctance, a dragging of feet, almost what might be considered a hindrance of justice" in White House failure to relinquish tapes sought by the House committee or the special prosecutor.

Percy, interviewed on ABC-TV's "Issues and Answers" program also said he would not be satisfied if Nixon turned over edited transcripts of the conversations instead of the actual tapes.

Both will run as write-in candidates since it would be too difficult to get the required signatures to get on the ballot, a party spokesman said.

John O'Neill of Fairview Park accepted his party's nomination for the Senate and said, "My message won't vary too much from before except that conditions under capitalism have gotten much worse."

Joseph Pirincin of Cleveland was nominated for governor.

Both will run as write-in candidates since it would be too difficult to get the required signatures to get on the ballot, a party spokesman said.

It is not clear how much he was doing for Hughes while serving as Democratic chairman.

In the memo, Lenzner accused the Internal Revenue Service of putting "frustrating and debilitating roadblocks" in the path of the committee's investigation of the Hughes money. He also raised questions about the conduct of the IRS' own probe of the contribution.

This was denied Sunday by the IRS, which said that it "has been cooperating to the fullest extent consistent with the disclosure limitations of the tax laws."

An informed source said the committee has received some tax returns but not the worksheets, records and results of IRS interviews which it sought.

Lenzner's memo says the committee also is seeking copies of IRS sensitive case reports on Hughes Tool Co.; F. Donald Nixon, one of the President's brothers; Rebozo, and others.

President plans new drive to boost sagging credibility

WASHINGTON (AP) — The White House is charting a fresh public relations campaign to coincide with President Nixon's responses to a pair of subpoenas from impeachment and Watergate investigators.

Presidential appearances in sections of the country considered generally friendly to his cause — and possibly a new Watergate "white paper" — are

Artillery duel spreads on Heights

By The Associated Press

Artillery exchanges continued through the night between Syrian batteries and Israeli positions on strategic Mt. Hermon and spread today along the Golan Heights front, the Syrian military command said.

"Intermittent artillery fighting continued throughout the night between our forces and enemy forces on Mt. Hermon," a Syrian communique said. "At 9:45 a.m. Monday, fighting by tanks, artillery and antitank missiles broke out on several other sectors of the Golan Heights front."

Sources in southern Lebanon said Israeli troops grabbed a Lebanese hilltop Sunday in their struggle with the Syrians for control of strategic Mt. Hermon.

The sources said the Israeli force occupied Shahar hilltop, on a southwest slope of Mt. Hermon, early Sunday and several mortar rounds fired by Lebanese troops failed to dislodge them.

There was no official comment from the Israeli or Lebanese governments. Both Israeli and Syrian air forces were reported in action Sunday.

The Israeli command said its planes attacked artillery and troop positions six miles behind Syrian lines after Syrian guns shelled Israeli positions on Mt. Hermon. The Israelis said the Syrians also sent one of their MIG jets against the Israeli positions on the mountain, but Israeli interceptors drove it off.

A Syrian communique reported Syrian forces battled the Israelis at 10 points in the Golan Heights and the Mt. Hermon area Sunday. It claimed a number of Israelis were killed or wounded and two observation posts were blown up.

Mt. Hermon straddles the Lebanese-Syrian border and is just north of the Israeli panhandle, giving the army that controls it a bird's eye view of the opposing armies on the Golan Heights, southeast Syria, including Damascus, and the villages in southern Lebanon from which Israel claims Palestinian guerrillas raid northern Israel.

Syrian and Israeli forces have been battling for positions on Hermon for more than two weeks. Israel captured the 7,220-foot south shoulder of the mountain in 1967, but Syria held on to the rest of it. Syrian commandos overran the Israeli positions at the start of the war last October, but before the cease-fire the Israelis drove the Syrians off the entire mountain.

In another Mideast development, the central committee of Israel's ruling Labor party decided to form a new government to replace Premier Golda Meir's cabinet instead of calling an election. It scheduled another meeting today to elect a successor to Mrs. Meir, who resigned two weeks ago amid renewed criticism of Israel's setbacks at the start of the October war.

Labor Minister Yitzhak Rabin and Information Minister Shimon Peres have declared themselves candidates. Finance Minister Pinhas Sapir, the strongest man in the party, has been resisting demands that he take the job.

Commissioners recommend 2 for tech college seats

The Fayette County Board of Commissioners Monday reported they had recommended two Washington C.H. area persons to be appointed to a five-county general and technical college board of trustees.

Chairman J. Herbert Perrill said commissioners recommended that Robert Rodgers, Rt. 6, Washington C.H., and Mrs. Charles (Marilyn) Mallow, 1342 Dayton Ave., be appointed to the board of trustees for the five-county college district. Ohio Gov. John J. Gilligan will make the appointment.

The Ohio Board of Regents during its regular session Friday approved a general and technical college to serve a five-county area in southwestern Ohio.

The school will serve students in Adams, Brown, Clinton, Fayette and Highland counties through two campuses.

ONE CAMPUS will be constructed in Brown County at the Tri-County Academic Center in Macon and the other will take the existing facilities at the former Clinton County Air Force Base in Wilmington, where the Laurel Oaks Joint Vocational School is presently situated.

The college is expected to open in the fall of 1976.

Commissioners were also scheduled to review construction profiles from Charles P. Wagner, Fayette County engineer, concerning the Indian Creek ditch project in Wayne Township.

Following the review of construction profiles, the board will schedule a date for the final hearing on the project.

The petition for improvements of the existing ditch was submitted to commissioners by William Shepard, Willard N. Parrett, Dr. Joseph M. Herbert and Lucille R. Braden.

The ditch, which starts on the Camp Grove Road near Ohio 753-S and drains the village of Good Hope, affects approximately 157 landowners and 5,700 acres of land. The approximate cost for improvements is $69,000, according to Wagner's preliminary report.

In other matters, Reginald (Chink) Davis, county dog warden, submitted 30 reports for the week.

American warships leave Indian Ocean

WASHINGTON (AP) — U.S. Navy warships are leaving the Indian Ocean for the first time since last fall's Middle East crisis.

Pentagon sources indicate it probably will be several months before the American Navy returns to that ocean, where its presence has been protested by India and some other countries, including Russia.

The carrier Kitty Hawk, several escorting destroyers and an oiler were expected to sail through the Strait of Malacca today. The task group may stop at Singapore before heading for the main 7th Fleet base at Subic Bay in the Philippines.

The Kitty Hawk was the third U.S. carrier to cruise the Indian Ocean since last October when Arab oil producers clamped an oil embargo on the United States. Tanker routes to the big oil-producing countries around the Persian Gulf pass through those waters.

Two runaway boys sought

Two Fayette County area boys were reported as runaways by the Washington C.H. Police Department today.

Missing are Donald Roy Bock, 16, of 223 East St., and Rex Martin Lane, 15, of Sabina. They were last seen at 9:30 a.m. Sunday at the Gregg Street Church of Christ in Christian Union.

Bock is described as 6-foot-1, 160 pounds, brown hair, green eyes, wearing a brown levi jacket, brown pants, and brown boots. He is epileptic and without medication, police said. Lane is described as 5-foot-11, 165 pounds, brown hair, blue eyes and wearing a rust colored swede jacket, levis or light blue denim jeans. He was also wearing dog tags with the name "Lisa Blair" engraved on them.

The boys were last heard from when they called their girlfriends in Washington C.H. from Laurel, Md., Sunday night.

If anyone has any information concerning the two boys, call the Police Department. Bock must have his medicine for his epilepsy condition, according to police.

The News In Brief

Xenia Guard costs $800,000

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The Ohio National Guard estimated today that it cost $800,000 for the call-up after the Xenia tornado, making it the most expensive emergency activation in history.

Maj. Gen. Dana L. Stewart, Ohio's adjutant general, said the figures did not reflect the cost to other departments for rescue, relief and rehabilitation efforts.

The last group of guardsmen on duty in Xenia pulled out today. Guardsmen had been on duty in the city for 20 days.

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP)—Recognition of Cuba may be raised again today as the fourth plenary session of the Organization of American States resumes with speeches from nine foreign ministers.

U.S. Secretary of State Henry A. Kissinger visited the annual OAS meeting over the weekend but failed to mention the possibility of Cuban participation in inter-American affairs.

NEW YORK (AP) — The criminal conspiracy trial of former Cabinet members John N. Mitchell and Maurice H. Stans is expected to go to the jury sometime this week.

Two Washington newspaper reporters are scheduled to testify today at the trial of Mitchell, the former attorney general, and Stans, onetime commerce secretary, as part of a government effort to bolster testimony that contradicts Mitchell's sworn statements.

LUCASVILLE, Ohio (AP) — Inmates of the Southern Ohio Correctional Facility were to tell the state Sundry Claims Board today about losing personal belongings during a shakedown at the prison last summer.

The board was to begin hearing the cases of 165 inmates who said they lost possessions in the shakedown.

BELFAST, Northern Ireland (AP) — The official death toll in Northern Ireland's religious war climbed to 1,001 over the weekend.

TUSCARAWAS, Ohio (AP) — Fire Chief Ronald Ault's 1973 annual report to the village council was brief:

The community of 800 had one fire for the entire year.

ATHENS, Ohio (AP) — Ohio University student workers hit the picket lines as early as 4 a.m. today, beginning a campus-wide strike for union recognition.

The Student Workers Union, voted for the strike last week, following a one-day walkout at one of the Athens campus' cafeterias.

Gasoline price increase likely

ORLANDO, Fla. (AP) — By summer, motorists may be paying 60 cents for a gallon of gasoline, says the nation's top energy official.

Federal energy chief John C. Sawhill said Sunday he expected gasoline prices to go up a few more cents and to level off at about 60 cents a gallon this summer. He told reporters covering a meeting of the National Oil Jobbers Council that he didn't expect gasoline prices to go much above that level.

Current average gasoline prices are about 53 cents a gallon for regular and 56 cents for premium. Sawhill didn't say whether he was referring to the price of premium, regular or the average.

Meanwhile, a New Jersey official said gasoline usage had risen dramatically in his state since an odd-even form of rationing was suspended last month. He said the program may be put back into effect this week because supplies are running short.

Sawhill, who was named by President Nixon to succeed William E. Simon as head of the Federal Energy Office when Simon was selected as treasury secretary, said motorists could look forward to new gasoline shortages if they do not continue to practice conservation.

If Americans continue driving at lower speed limits and limit nonessential use of cars, there will be sufficient gasoline for summer vacations, he said.

Sawhill also urged states to retain 55 mile an hour speed limits. He said the lower limit "saves energy and lives and should become a permanent part of our way of life."

U.S. economic play poorly plotted

By JOHN CUNIFF
AP Business Analyst
NEW YORK (AP) — The poorly plotted play now being enacted on the economic stage could hardly be more diabolical, short of a depression.
Few economists predict that ultimate blow, but in the year's first quarter the economy took its biggest decline in 16 years and still may not be on the road to recovery.
The ingredients of the real-life economic drama are similar to those in the make-believe world of theater: pathos, tragedy, despair, irony, crisis, desire and a good measure of cynical humor.
Prices are rising and restraints on prices are coming off at the end of the month. The stock market is almost lifeless. Mutual funds continue to be cashed in. The savings rate is well below the 7.3 per cent for 1973's final months.
Widespread shortages are reported, adding to price pressures and lessening the buying power of the paycheck. And the job market, although strong in the latest reports, is threatened with weakness.
The housing market has dipped after showing signs of strength early in the year. And now, with interest rates so high, money reportedly is abandoning the relatively low yields of savings and loan accounts for bigger things elsewhere. That lessens the ability of the S&Ls to grant mortgages.
This is bad enough, but many of the scenes are being played against a backdrop of soaring profits for some companies and desperate fights for life by other businesses.
And while the great American dream of upward mobility continues as a goal,

FBI reports no progress in Hearst case

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — "We've turned a lot of areas upside down," but FBI agent Charles Bates says authorities still don't know the whereabouts of Patricia Hearst or her abductors.
Bates, special agent in charge of the investigation, denied a Newsweek magazine story that FBI agents, posing as postmen and trash collectors, had infiltrated the neighborhood where the Symbionese Liberation Army is hiding but had not found the exact location of the terrorist group.
"That certainly isn't true," said Bates. "We haven't had any agents disguised as postmen or garbage men."
Bates said the search for Miss Hearst remains widespread and not limited to a specific neighborhood. Authorities believe the SLA, which claims to have kidnapped Miss Hearst, numbers about 25 heavily armed persons.
In another development, police said over the weekend they wanted to give a lie detector test to a roommate of one of Miss Hearst's cousins who claims he was abducted last Thursday.
Police said Van R. Bush, a roommate of William R. Hearst II, told them he was grabbed by three men who blindfolded him and drove him around for 2½ hours. They said Bush, 31, told them he was released after he convinced the men he was not young Hearst. He said the men repeatedly called him "Billy," which is the name young Hearst goes by.
Miss Hearst, 20, daughter of Randolph A. Hearst, president and editor of the San Francisco Examiner, was dragged from her Berkeley apartment Feb. 4. Her fiancé, Steven Weed, was beaten by her abductors.
Police said Weed attended a rally Sunday night that was also attended by a woman officers thought was alleged SLA member Nancy Ling Perry. But the woman turned out to be a Berkeley resident who police said was released after she paid a $13 outstanding traffic fine.

Kentucky school leveled by blaze

MAYSVILLE, Ky. (AP) — About 450 lower grade students are without classrooms today after a fire leveled the Washington Elementary School Sunday.
Also lost in the blaze was the gymnasium. Fire officials said an investigation was under way. Faulty wire was suspected as the cause, according to Washington Fire Chief James Maher.
Charles Straub, superintendent of Mason County schools, said the two-building complex was insured for $292,000. The insurance represents only 20 per cent of the cost needed to rebuild the school, Straub said.

reality intrudes with its somber report that millions of Americans are going nowhere, and haven't for three years or more.
Not everyone is in that predicament, however. Managers of some huge, publicly owned corporations are receiving salaries, fringes and stock options several times the salary of the president of the United States.
The explanations given for such managerial incomes is that today's big companies employ thousands of workers whose pay scales must be graduated to provide incentives to advancement.
At General Motors, there are 811,000 employees below the chairman, R.C. Gerstenberg, and the president, E.N. Cole, which helped push their salaries to $923,000 and $833,000 respectively. GM had a good year, with net income up more than $235 million to $2.4 billion, but the percent of each sales dollar that turned up as profit dropped to 6.7 per cent from 7.1 per cent in 1972.

Such pay scales may or may not be justified. Enormous responsibilities accompany the top position at any large corporation. GM and others are large almost beyond comprehension, more powerful than many of the world's nations.
It is the contrast that is bound to upset many Americans — the expanse between their own financial condition and the comfort and ease they feel is possible on the executive's salary.
But many of these same people are forgetting another ingredient of the economic script — their level of expectations. Twenty years ago many would have been satisfied with much less than they now have.

Ohio Homestead tax exemption deadline near

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Ohioans over 65 years old have until June 3 to file for their 1974 homestead exemption which gives them relief from property taxes, Gov. John J. Gilligan said.
"Even though a property owner qualified for and received a reduction in real property taxes on the 1973 tax duplicate under the homestead exemption, he must reapply this year," Gilligan said.
To be eligible, he said, a person must meet the age requirement, reside in the homestead and the owner and spouse must have income of not more than $10,000 annually, including pensions and Social Security.

Opinion And Comment

Texas, Texas, Texas, etc.

If a fellow down in Austin has his way, folks may some day sing about being deep in the heart of Texas, Texas, Texas, Texas, Texas. A state legislator, Rep. Dan Kubiak of Rockdale, thinks the Lone Star state ought to divide into five and thus vastly enhance the region's political clout in Washington. With 10 senators, just for starters, instead of two as at present.

Implementation of this idea, which has been advanced before, is not wholly out of the question. Technically, Texas could split into four additional states because it retained the right to do so when it joined the Union in 1845. Indeed, something like this nearly happened a couple of times: in 1921 only the governor's veto kept the state from being divided into east and west Texas after approval by both houses of the legislature, and in 1969 a state Senate committee okayed a north-south division (but it didn't reach a vote in the full Senate). There are not likely to be five Texases - or even four, or three, or two. Texas is Texas. Still, dividing to increase political clout is an idea.

THESE DAYS . . . by John Chamberlain

Dilemma of the 'overqualified'

There's a lot of confusion about the job market. A story in the National Observer quotes the director of job placement for Northwestern University's graduate school of management as saying small companies are short of capable middle-management people. "It's going to be pretty good for the next few years in the middle salary range, from $15,000 to $25,000," he concludes. It ain't necessary so, says Lester B. Korn, the president of Korn-Ferry, one of the nation's biggest international executive talent search companies. The demand for middle management in the $18,000 to $30,000 class will, according to Korn, show a decline at least for the next six months. At the top end of the scale, however, Korn says 1974 will be the biggest year for executives who are worth from $30,000 to $250,000. The reason: the energy crisis. Nobody can find enough good men to cope with the changing energy picture. In addition to top management jobs, the market is wide open for nuclear power plant designers and fossil fuel engineers. The college campuses are still pretty much anti-business, if one is to judge by the commentary in the undergraduate press. So there is a disjunctive situation as the business recruiters go to the campuses looking for likely material.

They don't want liberal arts graduates if they can find engineering, computer science, mathematical, biological science or business administration students. Yet the liberal arts courses remain the most popular with the business-hating young. IT'S A RIDICULOUS state of affairs when a country goes on producing masters of disciplines that are not wanted. A prep school headmaster of my acquaintance says he has had 700 unsolicited applications for teaching jobs this year in a situation that offers not a single opening. Young candidates for M.A. and Ph.D. degrees are deliberately putting off their final examination or the completion of these lest they be considered "overqualified" if they are forced to look to industry for jobs. This bit about "overqualification" points to a terrible failure in national attitudes. Times was when it was not considered demeaning either to offer something or to take something at lesser pay for interim periods. Big companies that refuse to take "overqualified" people for whatever jobs they need to fill are guilty of helping to create an atmosphere that is a pre-condition of Communism or Fascism. An unemployed elite is a dangerous elite: if neither business nor the academy can offer an M.A. or a Ph.D. a job, he is likely to turn to a totalitarian party that will promise him scope for his talents. Of course, the big companies are not wholly to blame for refusal to hire the "overqualified." We have an academic elite whose members consider themselves too good to take jobs that do not meet with their expectations. THE NEWEST ELITE scorns history. The annals of the human race prove that the world owes nobody a living. The liberal elitists who have scorned bourgeois employment may make it for a while working for the state under a dictatorial regime. But the record of history in both Communist and Fascist countries is one of purges in which liberal elitists have been among the first to go to the concentration camps or the gallows. We need a new shuffle in America. We need a willingness on the part of the big corporation to take the supposedly "overqualified" for whatever posts are available at whatever the salary range that goes with them. And we need a far more humble crop of M.A.s and Ph.D.s, one that is willing even to pump gas while waiting for a better opportunity.

A WORD EDGEWISE . . . by John P. Roche

Nemesis takes the stage

WASHINGTON - Commentators are supposed to be incisive, bold and certain, but I confess I am forced to let down the side. I am baffled, utterly baffled. President Nixon's adventures simply defy rational explanation. Indeed, if one were to read the story in a mystery, he would be convinced at this point that Nixon was the victim of one set-up after another. What else can we expect? Will some investigative reporter discover that the President's Naval aide has been using a cruiser as a fishing boat? Did CREEP promise pictures from the National Gallery to large contributors? Will Mrs. Nixon forget to renew her driver's license and get arrested for unlawful use of an automobile? On the basis of what has happened so far, almost anything lies within the realm of possibility. I don't want to fall into the Platonic trap of assuming that because there is a question there has to be an answer. Maybe there is no answer. But the difficulty is that, although I have been on the other side of the political hill from Mr. Nixon for a quarter of a century, I have always considered him to be extremely intelligent. (My conviction was reinforced by the fact that one of the shrewdest judges of men I have known, the late President Lyndon Johnson, shared this estimate.) Yet over the past year he has developed into almost a model of the "nebbish" - a Yiddish word that describes, for example, a person who goes into the shoe business just as people start being born without feet. SOME of the President's difficulties arose from his insensitivity to changes in the American political climate. Over the past decade we have undergone a revolution of rising moral expectations in politics. Mr. Nixon's defenders have a lot of history on their side when they point out that Harry Truman and Dwight Eisenhower each got a sweetheart deal from Congress on their memoirs. A special law, repealed after it served its purpose, treated the income as capital gains, which provided a financial windfall. John Kennedy could joke about his father's wealth and quote a cable from the old man, urging careful use of funds since he didn't want to waste money on a landslide. There was a good deal of monkey business sponsored by the Democratic "Five O'Clock Club in 1964 - so called because it met daily at five in a White House conference room. And Democratic campaign workers have been known to put the arm on businessmen who received government contracts. But no matter how hard the Republican apologists push the "boys will be boys" argument, it simply will not be persuasive. Cleaning up politics is an idea that has found its time - in large part due to the way CREEP went to work harvesting that crop of $100 bills.

As Murphy's Law notes, "If you play with anything too hard, it will break." Margaret Truman relates with relish how some friends of her fathers managed to get a third candidate into the 1940 Missouri Democratic primary, thus splitting the opposition and guaranteeing Truman's return to the Senate. (This by the way is great fun, particularly if the individual involved doesn't realize he is being played for a patsy.) Today, if somebody pulled the same gambit, there would be grand juries all over the landscape. In short the rules have changed largely because Mr. Nixon's operators (in the sad words of an old Boston pol) "gave dirty politics a bad name." But the President has to live by the new standards - a situation he simply does not seem to understand. BEYOND THAT there was a real element of hubris, of an over-reaching egotism, in Mr. Nixon's view of "the Presidency." He seemed to feel that he was not like other men, that he was vested with an imperial prerogative. In some aspects of foreign affairs this gave him buoyant strength; but in acting as though the United States was his private property, he was setting himself up for Nemesis, the goddess who in Greek tragedies is always the punisher of hubris. Our political system operates on the basis of a number of unwritten laws, of which probably the most important is that head-on conflicts between the branches of government are to be avoided: when Nixon started rubbing Congress' nose in its alleged impotence, he learned (as FDR did in 1937, when he tackled the Supreme Court) that the only valid definition of the separation of powers is the distance between the Capitol and the White House. As the Joint Committee's decision on his income taxes demonstrates, once the barons are aroused they are not to be trifled with. Now, with the smell of blood in their nostrils, they are out to demolish Nixon "Presidency."

Ohio Perspective

Ohioan lays blame on Nixon

By DEAN SCHOTT
Associated Press Writer
CANTON, Ohio (AP) - Peter Voss, a volunteer campaign worker for Richard Nixon in 1972, said from a managerial point of view, the President is to blame for Watergate. "You're damn right he's to blame," said Voss, a 43-year-old Canton businessman who is seeking the Republican nomination for the U.S. Senate May 7. "It's just like a corporation. The man at the top is responsible." But Voss tempered his statement. "Whether he was directly involved or specifically responsible for what happened, that's the question now." Voss said, "I enthusiastically supported the President and put a lot of effort into my volunteer job. I thought then and think now he has a tremendous amount of fiber. "I also believe Nixon has the interest of this country at heart. But he has found himself enmeshed in circumstances and I don't know to what extent he has become involved." Voss worked as an advance man for the President's campaign in 1972. He concentrated his efforts in the East and Midwest. He presented an historical explanation for the Committee to Re-Elect the President, which was established to run Nixon's campaign outside the traditional channels of the Republican party. Several members of the committee have been indicted and several convicted of abuses during the presidential campaign. "You have to look historically at the Republican party," he said. "Nixon lost two elections, the 1960 presidential election to John F. Kennedy and the 1962 California gubernatorial election, closely. "Those campaigns were more largely controlled by the traditional Republican apparatus. Then we won a close election over Hubert Humphrey in the 1968 presidential election using the Republican party." Voss said the committee was established outside of the Republican party to assure a landslide Nixon victory. "They did set it up for overkill, but they didn't want another close election," he said. Nixon swamped Sen. George McGovern, D-S.D. in one of the biggest election victories in a presidential race. Read the classified. NOTICE OF APPOINTMENT Estate of Karen Sue Exline, Deceased. Dear Abby:

ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

Season's closed on Alaska husband hunt

DEAR ABBY: A 45-year-old woman, looking for a husband asked you where all the men were, and you told her to go to Alaska. Please, Abby! We don't need any more women up here. The average age for women here is 27, and, except for the military, there aren't any spare men around. We have plenty of drifters, but they're very poor husband material. Also, you said, "...and if you should get lucky, the nights are six months long." A lot of people didn't know you were kidding. You would have to go way up into the arctic circle to find darkness during the daytime. Please, do us a favor and set the record straight, and don't send us any more women! Not to Anchorage anyway.

LIVES HERE
DEAR LIVES: For another discouraging word, read this letter from Fairbanks, Alaska. DEAR ABBY: Please don't start another gold rush in Alaska. We have enough trouble with men (and even whole families) who come here looking for jobs on the Alaskan pipeline which hasn't even been started yet. In the first place, nobody should come to Alaska unless he has a job assured him because unemployment in this state is 10.4 per cent-the highest in the nation. And furthermore, there's an Alaskan law giving job preference to Alaskans. Another thing people don't know. The cost of living in Alaska is high. A bacon and egg breakfast in a good restaurant costs from $3 to $5, and a good steak dinner costs anywhere from $8 to $15. And if you're looking for cheap housing, forget it. Abby, do a lot of people a big favor and print this. YOUR FRIEND IN FAIRBANKS DEAR FRIEND: That settles it. Don't any of you women go to Alaska in search of a husband, and don't any of you men go there unless you have a job in your pocket! DEAR ABBY: LeRoy and I have been married for only a year, and already we're having problems. The biggest one is that he is crazy about country and western dancing and I've never tried it. You have to have the right kind of clothes to dance country and western, and the boots alone cost $65. I don't want to spend that much money on something I might not like. LeRoy says if I won't go with him, he'll go without me. And he does. I don't like the idea of him dancing and drinking with other girls while I sit home. I don't mind his going out with a bunch of guys, but not for doing things with girls. He thinks I'm being unreasonable. Do you think I should put my foot down on LeRoy for going dancing without me? And if so, how hard? JUNEBUG DEAR JUNE BUG: The place for your foot is in a Western boot and not on LeRoy. And if you're smart you'll love it. DEAR ABBY: I work as a cashier at a well-known chain grocery store, and my problem is the way people treat me. They act like it's my fault the prices are so high. They yell at me when I ring up items, and ask how come canned corn went up four cents in one week. When they pay their money, they say: "Look at that! I used to be able to get three bags of groceries with a $20 bill!" They don't realize that I have to buy groceries too, and I only work there. And while I'm griping, I may as well mention those customers who wait until their order is totaled, and then ask to get a check cashed while customers are waiting in line behind them. Meanwhile the cashier gets dirty looks from the customer. I used to love my work, but no longer! Please print this. I got it off my chest and believe it or not, I feel better. "SUNNY" DEAR SUNNY: Consider it done. Now...smile!

Nixon's name hardly noted in California convention

SAN JOSE, Calif. (AP) — Even in spirit, the presence of Richard M. Nixon was virtually absent from the spring California Republican convention.

There was no customary resolution in support of the party's President, a native and voting resident of California.

During two days of speechmaking, Nixon's name was rarely mentioned — except during a speech Saturday by Vice President Gerald R. Ford.

"The Democrats have announced their intention to turn the coming November election into a national referendum on President Nixon," Ford told a luncheon meeting.

"The issue is not RMN (Nixon's initials), but is as simple as ABC," the vice president said.

"ABC," Ford said, stood for basic party politics — opposed to the "trickery" of the 1972 Committee for the Re-election of the President "or any other CREEPs who are looking for an easy, unethical or illegal road to victory."

It was a sign of the times that Ford did not talk about building a Republican majority in Congress, or even maintaining the status quo GOP minority. He said the important thing was to keep the Democrats from getting a "stranglehold" on government that would threaten the two-party system.

While few convention delegates voiced their support of Nixon, the delegates who were critical of him or said he should resign generally would say so only in private.

In terms of applause, the undisputed star of California's Republican party was still Gov. Ronald Reagan.

WPAFB pilot killed in crash on Guam

AGANA, Guam (AP) — A pilot stationed at Wright-Patterson Air Force Base near Dayton, Ohio, was among six crewmen who were killed Sunday when their C130 turboprop transport plane crashed near here.

The pilot was Maj. Francis E. King, 36.

An Air Force spokesman said the cause of the crash was not known. He said the plane was scheduled for a general overhaul in the United States.

Youth choir, band schedule appearance

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The All-Ohio Youth Choir and the All-Ohio Boys Band have been invited to appear in two New Year's Day festivities.

The choir will be in the annual Tournament of Roses Parade in Pasadena, Calif., preceding the Rose Bowl football game. The band has accepted an invitation to the Cotton Bowl Festival in Dallas.

Stay with your boat or canoe in the event it capsizes, says the division of watercraft of the Ohio Department of Natural Resources. Rescue planes and boats can more easily locate the accident by looking for a boat rather than for individuals, and the boater who tries to swim to shore greatly increases the risk of drowning.

Spears' companions, John Woodward, 39, and Charles Handley, 39, both of Huntington, told deputies that Spears had been asleep on the river bank.

They said he got up and staggered into the water, then began swimming. He disappeared about 100 yards out, they said.

Spears was acquitted last month of the murder of Rocco Thompson. He pleaded self-defense and testified that he and friends rolled Thompson's body up in blankets and dumped it in the Ohio River.

He was charged with littering the river following the acquittal. Spears was later arrested in South Carolina on charges of possession of drugs and burglary tools.

Search continued today for the body of Robert E. Spears, who was charged last month with littering the Ohio River with the body of a man he admitted having killed.

Two of Spears' friends told authorities they saw him disappear while swimming in the Guyan River near here. But Cabell County Sheriff Ted Barr said his agency was not discounting the possibility that the matter was a hoax.

Dragging and diving operations for the 27-year-old Huntington man proved unsuccessful Sunday, officials said.

Your Horoscope

By FRANCES DRAKE

Look in the section in which your birthday comes and find what your outlook is, according to the stars.

TUESDAY, APRIL 23

ARIES

(March 21 to April 20)

Quite unexpectedly you may find the solution to a difficult problem. Another's casual words could put you on the right track.

TAURUS

(April 21 to May 21)

Here is a chance to advance, but with precisely directed endeavor and theme. Your innate artistry and finesse will be big aids.

GEMINI

(May 22 to June 21)

You can afford to be a bit daring now. Do something — anything — to lessen the depth of any rut in which you may find yourself.

CANCER

(June 22 to July 23)

Give careful thought to financial affairs — not only business-wise but where your personal budget is concerned. In speculative matters, go slow.

LEO

(July 24 to Aug. 23)

Group activity highly favored. Stars indicate now is the time for you to make some exciting new contacts.

VIRGO

(Aug. 24 to Sept. 23)

You have several dandy prospects in sight. Even if results are not immediately forthcoming, good efforts will make a favorable impression, hasten rewards.

LIBRA

(Sept. 24 to Oct. 23)

Emotionalism or temperamentalism could get you into trouble if not careful. Self-control needed — especially in romantic situations.

SCORPIO

(Oct. 24 to Nov. 22)

Present conditions may not warrant certain expansion you've in mind. Go slow if conservative opposition arises.

SAGITTARIUS

(Nov. 23 to Dec. 21)

Jupiter, favorable, stimulates your skills and talents. You should accomplish much. Keep the ball rolling, the door to opportunity open.

CAPRICORN

(Dec. 22 to Jan. 20)

Keep on the lookout for a chance to get a better work assignment or some fringe benefit. Taking on an extra chore without being asked could hasten such a bonus.

AQUARIUS

(Jan. 21 to Feb. 19)

A period for re-evaluation. Try to learn just where you stand in relation to other persons, especially competitors. Take nothing — and no one — for granted.

PISCES

(Feb. 20 to March 20)

Whatever your plans, take into account new trends and ideas and, if necessary, change maneuvers to fit the current picture. Be dauntless, ready for the unexpected.

YOU BORN TODAY are gifted with a fine mind, lofty ambitions and unusual versatility in the arts — especially in painting, writing and sculpture. If you do not take up one of these as a career, in fact, you will undoubtedly pursue one or the other as an avocation — which could eventually become a second career.

You are highly efficient, a lover of neatness and order, but must take care that you don't go too far along these lines and become a "fussbudget."

With a great affinity for the outdoors, you could become a successful agriculturist, botanist or landscape artist. Teaching (especially in the fields of history and archeology) is a "natural" for you, and your love for your fellowman makes you a truly dedicated physician or nurse. Do try to overcome a tendency toward obstinacy.

X-rated movie being shown to promote solon's election

ANN ARBOR, Mich. (AP)—Other politicians hold fish fries and hot dog roasts to raise campaign money. Perry Bullard is showing an X-rated movie.

Bullard's showing of "Deep Throat" this weekend is in keeping with his unorthodox ways in the Michigan House since his election in 1972 by Ann Arbor's liberal student community.

"The Democrats are really upset," Bullard remarked. "But I should stress they had nothing to do with this."

It's not the first time the Democrats have been upset with the 31-year-old lawyer.

He has acknowledged using marijuana, and once smoked it at a public rally to urge the removal of criminal sanctions for the use of pot; he has been arrested for hitchhiking; and now he plans to show "Deep Throat."

"I approved the showing of this film by the group because I believe in the fundamental First Amendment right of any adult individual to see any movie that person desires to see," he said.

He predicted he might raise as much as $2,000 from the six showings of the movie at the University of Michigan Friday and Saturday nights.

But a ruling by university counsel Roderick Dean apparently bars the money from direct use in the Bullard campaign. Dean said Thursday that use of a public institution for political purposes might be illegal.

A spokesman for the Bullard's campus campaign organization said the money might be used for public purposes in Bullard's district office or on campus for his support.

No one is opposing Bullard in the Democratic primary this spring.

State Rep. Dan Angel, a Republican from Marshall, issued a news release calling the showing a "debasing" of the legislature. The statement said Bullard was "utterly without redeeming social value."

As of Oct. 31, 1972, there were 20,828 officers and 1,984 civilians in the police roster in New York. Chicago was next with 13,125 officers and 1,286 civilians.

'Niger' and 'Raisin' win Tony awards

NEW YORK (AP) — Two shows about black family life, the drama "The River Niger" and the musical "Raisin," are Broadway's 1974 Tony Award champions.

Cited for stellar performances in plays were Michael Moriarty of "Find Your Way Home" and Colleen Dewhurst of "A Moon for the Misbegotten." Winners of musical star trophies were Virginia Capers of "Raisin" and Christopher Plummer of "Cyrano."

The winners in 18 competitive categories were announced Sunday night during a three-hour marathon of grabbag special acts and "thank you" speeches broadcast over the ABC television network.

There were also nine special awards to other people the League of New York Theaters wanted to honor.

Most interesting aspects of the 28th annual distribution of the silver medallions were the ethnic production domination of key prizes and an apparent desire to spread the remaining glory around.

"Raisin" was chosen as the best musical, but the 435 members of the theatrical profession who participate in the secret balloting decided the best book for a musical was by Hugh Wheeler for "Candide," and the best score was "Gigi" by Frederick Loewe and Alan Jay Lerner.

"Candide," ruled ineligible for the main trophy because it was a revival, received the additional consolation of one of the honorary awards as well as scooping the best musical director prize for Harold Prince; best costumes, Franee Lee; and best scenery, Mrs. Lee again with her husband Eugene.

Eugene O'Neill's "A Moon for the Misbegotten" also got a special prize as a revival that couldn't vie for the top award, but took the drama director award for Jose Quintero, supporting actor for Ed Flanders as well as the medallion for Miss Dewhurst.

Area students place at Ohio Science Fair

Four area students participated in the Ohio Science Fair in Columbus Saturday. All fared well, and one received balated district honors.

Participating were David and Stuart Foster, and Tom Payton of Miami Trace and the school's "adopted son," Rick Binzel.

Binzel, a freshman at Washington Junior High School, entered under the Miami Trace banner because the city schools have no extra-curricular science program. His enthusiasm for science has been exemplified through the Miami Trace Science Club, under the direction of Harold Gass, science teacher.

Since competition for the West District was cancelled by the tornado which struck down Central State University, West District winners in biological and physical science were chosen at the state finals.

David Foster, a senior at Miami Trace, received the first place award in the physical science division. He will participate in the Wooster Science Academy seminars this weekend. The seminar is open to the first place winner in each division from each Ohio district.

David Foster and Binzel received "superior" ratings while projects entered by Stuart Foster and Payton were judged to be "excellent." More than 1,000 Ohio students entered projects at the fair.

DAVID FOSTER'S winning project concerned itself with the "Applications of Astronomical Photography." By photographing areas of the sky and applying advanced mathematical calculations, Foster determined the exact positions of certain heavenly bodies. This was done by considering their position in the photographs to other stars and bodies whose positions are known.

Stuart Foster, a freshman, used dry ice and heating coils to create miniature tornadoes in a closed chamber. His study in the cause of tornadoes focuses on the basic principles currently being studied by top scientists throughout the country, especially in light of the recent wave of destruction.

Payton, a senior, demonstrated how infra-red photography can be used to detect diseases in plants. The disease causes distortions in an infra-red photograph which cannot be seen with the naked eye.

Binzel, who is an avid astronomer, had used various photographic techniques and development processes to achieve the best possible photos of the moon. He explained the advantages and disadvantages of each type of photography when used with a small telescope.

FLEA TIME AGAIN — One of the last remnants of the outdoor market - the Flea Market - began its summer run in Washington C.H. this weekend. Almost everything from bottle caps to automobiles were on sale as hundreds of exhibitors and thousands of buyers swarmed the Fairground Saturday and Sunday. Above is one exhibitor's display of oriental brass, pottery and sculptured items.

C. of C. posts week's agenda

A schedule of activities for the coming week for the Washington C.H. Area Chamber of Commerce has been announced by president Fred L. Domenico.

The 1974-75 budget committee will meet at 4 p.m. Tuesday with president-elect Bruce Galloway to start budget preparations for the new fiscal year beginning July 1.

On Wednesday, the Chamber of Commerce will lead an area delegation to Columbus to discuss future development of Deer Creek State Park with William B. Nye, director of the Ohio Department of Natural Resources.

Representatives of New Holland, Circleville, Chillicothe, Mount Sterling and the Columbus Chamber of Commerce are scheduled to attend the 1:30 p.m. session in the director's office. Richard Stinson, Jim Dunn, Domenico and Galloway will be representing the Washington C.H. Area Chamber of Commerce.

Kenneth Payton, chairman of the accreditation committee in charge of planning and development, will meet with his committee at 8 a.m. Thursday in the Washington Savings Bank.

Although no time has been set, the Chamber's public relations task force is scheduled to meet early in the week. Leroy Barton is the Chamber director in charge.

President Domenico reminds all members they have until May 1 to cast their ballots for new directors, and return the 1974-75 program of work questionnaires.

Good weather swells collector crowd

The weather was favorable, and buying, selling and trading were brisk at the first of the 1974 "summer shows" sponsored by the Central Ohio Gun and Indian Relic Collectors Association.

Association officials said approximately 3,000 cars were on the Fairground during the two-day event, and total attendance probably was near 10,000.

The number of exhibitors was close to the 700 mark, most of them setting up shop both Saturday and Sunday. The three main Fairground buildings were filled with exhibits and the flea market aspect of the show spilled over the grounds and into some of the livestock barns.

Competition at the April show was for 41 caliber Remington Derringer pistols, with a local man carrying away the trophy for his double Derringer in a case. Winners' names are not released because of the possibility of theft.

The next summer show will be held Saturday and Sunday, May 18 and 19.

Road drainage, patching work slated

Miscellaneous projects have been planned by state highway and county road crews this week.

Bill Duncan, general foreman of the city street department, was unavailable for release of the work schedule for the city crews.

Drainage projects will top the worksheet for members of the county road this week.

Charles P. Wagner, Fayette County engineer, said the crews will be occupied with drainage projects on the York Road in Perry Township, the Mills Road in Wayne Township and the Washington-Waterloo Road. Wagner also said the crews will be installing and repairing culverts in various locations throughout Fayette County.

State highway workmen will be patching roads in various locations and sealing cracks on Ohio 734, east of Jeffersonville, and on U.S. 35-S, according to Gene Fitzpatrick, superintendent of the Ohio Department of Transportation garage in Fayette County.

Fitzpatrick said the state crews will also be handling a ditching project on U.S. 35 while crews will be disinfecting roadside rest areas along I-71 in Fayette, Franklin, Delaware, Morrow and Pickaway counties. Trash crews will also be in operation.

Cleveland walkout continues

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP)— An emergency meeting of labor leaders was asked Sunday by the president of the fire fighters' local in an effort to maintain solidarity among 13 unions bargaining with the city.

Joseph A. Gannon, head of Local 93 of the International Association of Firefighters, said the meeting would be an effort to keep Mayor Ralph J. Perk from "pitting one union man against another in a union war."

The call was issued after the city reportedly offered the unions the choice of accepting layoffs or pegging a wage increase to repeal of a city charter amendment guaranteeing that Cleveland safety forces will be the highest paid in the state.

"We are all in the AFL-CIO and one affiliate does not attack another affiliate," Gannon said.

The talks were scheduled to resume at 2 p.m. today under supervision of Common Pleas Court Judge John McMahon. The talks broke off early Saturday evening with no word of progress.

Earlier Sunday, Clevelanders apparently struck back at the week-old walkout by city truck drivers. Strollers enjoying a sunny day downtown found bags of garbage tossed on the steps of city hall.

No garbage has been collected in the city since last Monday when the 800-member Teamsters Union Local 244 walked off the job after contract talks failed to produce an agreement. The green bags dotted lawns and sidewalks throughout the city.

Leftist leads

BOGOTA, Colombia (AP) — Alfonso Lopez Michelsen, who has criticized U.S. policy in Latin America, has been elected president of Colombia.

Unofficial returns indicated Lopez, candidate of the left of center Liberal party, won by a landslide.

With a commanding and steadily increasing lead in returns from Sunday's election, Lopez claimed victory, and his chief opponent conceded.

"With emotion and gratitude I accept the mandate of the Colombian people," Lopez said in a statement read to newsmen.

CHECK OUT YOUR LIBRARY — National Library Week is an excellent time to stop in to the Carnegie Public Library. If you haven't been there before the staff, pictured above, will be glad to show you around. If you have books from the library which you never quite got around to

National Library Week opens

"Grow With Books" and "Get It All Together at Your Library" are the dual themes of the 17th annual National Library Week, April 21-27.

Carnegie Public Library here will be participating in activities which point out the many facets of the learning center. The local library is a member of the Southwestern Ohio Rural Libraries (SWORL) association. The seven county, 13-library organization works together to provide better and more varied service to library patrons.

This year's dual themes for National Library Week will attempt to point out that the SWORL libraries do not serve by books alone. In addition to the books, there is also a whole spectrum of phonograph records and cassette tapes, magazines and periodicals, as well as special traveling collections.

Local Librarian Kris Amsbary points out that every reader can grow intellectually, emotionally and personally throughout his lifetime by the use of books and other library materials.

SINCE its inception in 1958, National Library Week has sought to create a better read, better informed America by encouraging lifetime reading habits and stimulating greater library use.

National Library Week is sponsored by the National Book Committee in cooperation with the American Library Association.

Locally, it is seen as a good opportunity to get to know Carnegie Public Library better. The facility could more aptly be called an information center. It has more than 48,000 books, 130 current magazines and periodicals and 1,100 phonograph records and tapes.

Last year, patrons borrowed more than 121,000 books and materials from the library.

The hours of service at the library are Monday through Friday from 9 a.m. to 8 p.m. and (except Thursday) 9-12 on Saturdays from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m.

SPECIAL book collections on local history and other areas of local interest are on the shelves. A copier service is available at 10 cents per page.

Books can be loaned for two weeks and may be renewed for an additional two weeks. To call the library, dial 335-2540.

If the book you want is out, ask for the book to be put on reserve. And, if the book you want is not in the library collection, ask the librarian to see if it can be borrowed through the hotline. As a member of SWORL, the library has a special contract service with the Public Library of Cincinnati for borrowing books, records, cassettes

Ohio firms scramble for iron ore

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP)—Two of Ohio's steel giants scrambled for raw materials while a federal judge was to hear objections today to his order closing a Minnesota mining plant closed for allegedly polluting Lake Superior.

Judge Miles Lord ordered a Reserve Mining Co. facility closed Saturday after a nine-month trial, accused the firm of delaying tactics and not producing requested alternative disposal plans for taconite tailings.

Reserve maintains the wastes are not hazardous, and a company spokesman in Minneapolis said the company might appeal.

There would be no immediate effect on Reserve's parent companies, Armco or Republic Steel corporations, company spokesmen said Sunday. But spokesmen for the Ohio firms said efforts to secure iron ore from other sources were underway.

"We are not prepared to say a cut-back will or won't result while we are considering what further legal steps might be taken," an Armco spokesman at the Middletown headquarters said.

Republic, the nation's fourth largest steel producer which has headquarters here, would draw on stockpiles until other suppliers were found, Henry W. Hopwood, vice president for public relations, said.

Top auto executives get high pay

DETROIT (AP) — General Motors' top two executives earned nearly $1.75 million in 1973, the nation's largest auto maker reports.

Chairman Richard C. Gerstenberg earned the most, receiving $300,000 in salary and $623,000 on bonuses. President Edward N. Cole's total earnings were $833,000, of which $270,000 was salary, GM said Thursday.

The firm said it paid its top executives more than $20.9 million in salaries and bonuses last year, a 5.4 per cent increase over the $19.8 million paid the previous year.

around the crossings about May 1.

Workmen from the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Co., started repair work on S. Fayette Street railroad crossings last week.

Wolford said he has not received any definite schedule for repair work priority.

Officers and directors received bonuses totaling $54.9 million in cash and $53.8 million in stock valued at $68.79 a share, GM said in a proxy statement.

Executives also can benefit from "contingent credits," a complex company stock option plan allowing purchase of GM common stock at $50 a share.

Ford Chairman Henry Ford II and Ford President Lee Iacocca each made $865,000 in salaries and bonuses last year. Lynn Townsend, Chrysler's chairman, made $672,200.

Padres win second game to prevent series sweep

Reds split season's first doubleheader

Umpires have problems in Sunday's ballgames

By The Associated Press

Flattery is supposed to get you nowhere, but it got Toby Harrah of the Texas Rangers a quick trip to the dugout Sunday.

The Rangers, trailing the Minnesota Twins 5-0, had the bases loaded with none out — Harrah was on second — in the seventh inning of a game they eventually lost 8-2. Jeff Burroughs slashed a grounder toward short and the ball hit Harrah.

That's when the fun started. Ron Luciano, the second base umpire, ruled Harrah deliberately ran into the ball. He called both Harrah and Burroughs out for a double play with no advance. Luciano told Harrah, "A good baserunner would try to get hit in a situation like that and you're a good baserunner."

Since their's wasn't much he could say to that, Harrah's next performance was a slow trip back to the bench while Burroughs was ejected from the game and Manager Billy Martin protested it.

The umpires also had their problems in Baltimore. The Orioles edged New York 6-5 in 13 innings in the opener of a doubleheader and then protested the nightcap, which they lost 3-0. Baltimore complained that Yankee coach Whitey Ford violated the rules by making two trips to the mound in the sixth inning with the same batter at the plate to talk to hurler Sam McDowell.

Orioles 6-0, Yankees 5-3

Craig Nettles drove in his 20th run of the season with a single in the sixth inning of the nightcap and stretched his RBI streak to nine consecutive games, two short of the major league record. The Orioles won the first game in 13 innings when rookie Mike Reinbach singled home Earl Williams from second base. Nettles hit his ninth home run in the opener.

Sam McDowell collaborated with Fred Beene on the four-hit shutout in the nightcap, pitching the first 51-3 innings.

Angels 9, A's 5
Lee Stanton's three-run homer capped a six-run California explosion in the eighth inning against Vida Blue, Rolie Fingers and Darold Knowles.

Tigers 6, Brewers 5
Jim Northrup doubled with two out in the 14th inning off Tom Murphy and scored the winning run on Al Kaline's single.

Red Sox 6, Indians 5
Dick McAuliffe scored the winning run from second base on a wild pickoff throw by Cleveland pitcher Milt Wilcox in the 10th inning.

White Sox 11, Royals 7
Brian Downing smashed a bases-loaded triple to highlight a seven-run sixth-inning uprising.

The Reds took the opener 10-1 as Concepcion drilled his first career grand slam.

"I had a bad headache since this morning," said Concepcion. The throbbing eased a bit after his grand slam capped a seven-run first inning.

While Greif cooled off Cincinnati's booming bats, ex-Reds Bobby Tolan and Bob Barton got in their licks.

Tolan, traded during the winter after a clubhouse fracas with a Reds' official, scored twice to answer a chorus of boos. Barton, dropped by Cincinnati a year ago, cracked a pair of run-scoring singles.

The losing pitcher was Clay Kirby 1-2, who the Padres reluctantly turned loose for Tolan and reliever Dave Tomlin.

Ex-Padre Fred Norman, 1-1, won the opener, fanning nine in eight innings of three-hit ball.

Barton savored the satisfaction of his contribution. A year ago he was a third string catcher for the Reds when given his unconditional release.

He returned to his real estate business in California, convinced his baseball career was over.

But 10 days before the Padres opened spring training he made a decision to come out of retirement. He beat out veteran catcher Pat Corrales and was back in baseball.

The 15-year pro lends stability to the Padres' young pitching staff, according to McNamara. And he proved he still had zip in his throwing arm by gunning down would-be base stealer Pete Rose.

Barton's experience helped settle down Greif, who got off to a shaky start. The 6-foot-5 righthander walked six batters and hit another among the first 16 he faced.

But he limited the Reds to two hits in six innings and went on to claim his first victory of 1974 after three losses.

Tony Perez continued his home run binge with his sixth of the spring. It came in the opener. He and Concepcion share the team leadership in runs batted in with 15 each.

Cincinnati sends rookie Mike McQueen against Detroit tonight in an exhibition charity game. The Padres return to the West Coast to open a home stand Tuesday with the New York Mets.

Washington C.H. Blue Lions were triumphant only once in three tries over the weekend. They lost to Circleville 8-7, won the first game of a doubleheader from Lexington 13-5, but dropped the nightcap by a score of 13-7.

In the game with Circleville, the Lions did more for Circleville than the Tigers themselves. The Lionmen totaled six errors in the contest, three of which were recorded in the third inning when the Tigers sent five unearned runs across the plate. Also instrumental in the bout, the Lions walked in the deciding run in the bottom of the seventh inning. The winning pitcher for the Tigers was Bob Thomas and the loser for Washington C.H. was Larry Dumford.

In the first section of the twin-bill, the Lions cranked up their cannon power and blasted for 13 runs and 11 hits. Mark Johnson crashed a solo home run and senior Jeff Wallace smashed a grand slam home run in the game. Greg McCune was the winner for Washington C.H., allowing just five runs on nine hits. The loser for Lexington was Joe Weirick.

In the second game of the double feature, both teams smacked 26 hits between them but Lexington came away with 13 runs to Washington's 7. Mark Sutter of Lexington matched Wallace's earlier feat and hit a grand slam homer and Greg Dubek added a solo circuit clout. Gilbert Sparkman had a four-for-four game, singling twice, doubling and adding a solo homer of his own. The Lexington winner was Steve Thomas and the loser for Washington C.H. was Mark Lamberson.

The three weekend games send the Blue Lions' season overall mark to 3-6, while their South Central Ohio League mark suffers at 2-3. The inability to get the clutch hit at the right time was evident in last week's games. In the last six games, Washington C.H. had left a total of 63 men on base.

Garth Cox selected for prep grid classic

BY LARRY WATTS

Record Herald Sports Editor

Although the 1973 football season ended in November, the honors are still rolling in for Garth Cox, Washington Senior High's outstanding offensive guard and defensive tackle.

Cox, a 6-5, 240 pound senior, has been selected as an offensive guard for the South's 33-man squad in the Ohio High School North-South all-star classic. The game will take place in Canton's Fawcett Stadium on August 2. Cox is to report for practice on July 22.

During his senior year, Cox was honorary captain of the All-South Central Ohio League offensive line, a first team all-district selection at defensive tackle and was rewarded honorable mention honors all-state. On defense, he had 84 tackles and helped his teammates hold the opponents to a total of 420 yards rushing. The Lions, who were rated as the top team in the Associated Press poll, gained 2,654 yards rushing, as Cox was one of the main assets to the offensive line.

Cox recently signed to play football with the Ohio State Buckeyes. Carrying a 3.2 scholastic average, he plans to pursue political science and a pre-law curriculum at OSU.

In being named to the South team, Cox becomes the fifth Washington player in the last five years to receive the honor. The other four players were Lowell Harper (1970), Jim Heath (1972), Steve Ross (1972) and Mike Domenico (1973).

Cox is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cox, 902 S. Main St.

Tigers sweep two from Panther jv's

CIRCLEVILLE — Miami Trace's reserve squad gave up a total of 29 runs Saturday afternoon, as the Panthers dropped a doubleheader to Circleville, 10-8 and 19-15.

Miami Trace only had four extra base hits in the two slugfests. Ken Darling doubled in the first game, Allan Conner had a triple and Duane Tyree had a pair of doubles in the nightcap. Tyree also had a perfect day at the plate, as he had three hits in three official trips to the plate.

Hawks lose to Bruins

BOSTON (AP) — Tony Esposito of the Chicago Black Hawks is one of the National Hockey League's all-time great goalies, but he is human — and the Boston Bruins proved it.

Esposito had allowed only four goals in five playoff games and still was receiving kudos for his 46-save performance in a 4-2 victory in the series opener against Boston when he took the ice Sunday for the second game.

Led by Johnny Bucyk, who scored three power-play goals, the Bruins unloaded their heavy artillery for an 8-6 victory to even the best-of-seven series 1-1 before moving to Chicago for games No. 3 and 4 Tuesday and Thursday nights.

"I didn't play well at all," said Esposito, who had only 27 saves and was beaten for one goal on a 75-foot slap shot by Terry O'Reilly. "A lot of those long shots took big dips."

"It was not the best hockey game of the season," Boston Coach Bep Guidolin said. "We won, though, and that's all that counts. I don't give a darn about the score, whether it's 1-0 or 8-6, it's still a win."

The other NHL semifinal series resumes Tuesday night in Philadelphia with the Flyers leading the New York Rangers 1-0 on the strength of a 4-0 victory Saturday night.

In the World Hockey Association semis, the Minnesota Fighting Saints beat the Houston Aeros 4-1 to take a 2-1 lead in their series. Game four of the series will be played next Sunday.

The Toronto Toros took a 1-0 lead over the Chicago Cougars into tonight's game in Toronto in the other semifinal series.

Bucyk, one of the NHL's all-time top scorers, scored with assists from Bobby Orr and Carol Vadnais three times while the high-powered Bruins had a man-advantage in the first two periods.

Cowboys take action on new league

DALLAS (AP) — A rash of injunctions and restraining orders was expected around the National Football League today in the wake of the Dallas Cowboys' midnight action Sunday against the World Football League.

The Cowboys were the second NFL club to take such action, but apparently they were not the last. Cincinnati procured a similar order Friday and Miami managing general partner Joe Robbie indicated the Dolphins might take similar action.

The restraining order signed here by State District Court Judge Ted Aikin prohibits the WFL from dealing with Cowboy players and keeps running back Calvin Hill and quarterback Craig Morton from promoting the WFL teams they have signed with for the 1975 season.

The restraining order, in effect until April 30, also forbids Morton and Hill from attempting to attract other players to either Houston or Hawaii. A WFL spokesman in Los Angeles said there would be no comment until league lawyers study the case.

In recent weeks, the Cowboys have lost Hill, a formidable ground gainer; Morton, a strong-arm passer; and stellar split-end Mike Montgomery to WFL teams. They've also seen three draft choices choose the fledgling WFL.

Jackie Pung, LPGA Hall-of-Famer from Hawaii, adorned Miss Prentice with green leis after the 41-year-old Alabaman "punched a little four-iron" from the tee to within four feet of the flag on the fourth playoff hole. Then she sank the birdie putt to defeat Jane Blalock for the $32,000 first prize.

The richest tournament in the history of women's golf, a total purse of $200,000, is considered by the gals as prestigious to them as the Masters is to the men.

Miss Blalock, the 1972 Winners Circle champion when the first prize was $20,000, had birdied the 157-yard No. 17 on the tournament's 71st hole by hitting to within 18 inches of the flag.

That same hole on the Mission Hill's course came up as the fourth playoff hole and she followed Jo Ann's sensational shot by leaving herself about a 12-foot.

Sandra Haynie, the 54-hole leader, shot a 74, bogeying the 14th when she hit into water. She regained a share of the lead when Miss Prentice three-putted No. 17 from about 45 feet, missing about a three-foot putt. Miss Blalock birdied 18 — with a six-foot putt and the trio, tied at one-over-par 289, returned to the 14th hole to start the sudden death playoff.

Miss Haynie was short on a six-foot Buckeyes, Indiana split cage classic

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The Ohio College All-Stars played good defense two nights, but good offense only one night, said basketball Coach Jim Burson.

The result was the Buckeye State squad split the two-game Sertoma Basketball Classic with the Indiana College All-Stars.

Ohio won the second game in Ohio State's St. John Arena Saturday night 90-74 after dropping the first game to Indiana at Indianapolis Friday night 97-83.

putt for a bogey on the second playoff hole, leaving Jo Ann and Jane who had 73s to fight for the $14,500 difference as second place money of $21,000 and $14,000 for third was shared by the playoff losers.

Jo Ann's tee shot on the third playoff hole hit a three stake, becoming back into the fairway, and she scrambled to make par. Memory of her three-putt bogey earlier on 17 was still fresh in her mind.

Boston places Knicks on brink of elimination

NEW YORK (AP) — The aura of invincibility that once surrounded the New York Knicks before their wildly enthusiastic home fans — and frightened opposing teams — appears to be disappearing ... at least as far as the Boston Celtics are concerned.

"The crowd yelling is not always to the benefit of the home club," suggested Boston Coach Tom Heinsohn after the swift and brawny Celtics had raced and battled to a 98-91 victory over the Knicks Sunday before a capacity crowd of 19,964 at Madison Square Garden and a national television audience.

"In that situation, our guys tend to get super psyched up," added Heinsohn, who also indicated that the National Basketball Association Eastern Conference final series might be taking on "a reverse home court edge."

The triumph gave the Celtics a solid 3-1 lead in the best-of-seven competition against the Knicks, defending NBA champions, on the brink of elimination from the playoffs. The Celtics could clinch the series with a victory in Game Five Wednesday night at Boston Garden.

"I'm still confident," said Walt Frazier, the Knicks' high scorer with 25 points. "If we can beat them up there again, I don't think they can beat us three straight at Madison Square Garden."

"It's very unusual for us to win two games in New York," said John Havlicek, Boston's captain and leader with 36 points. "They're a very good team at home."

If the Celtics eliminate the Knicks, they likely will face the Milwaukee Bucks for the league title. The Bucks, with a 3-0 lead over Chicago following their 113-90 triumph Saturday, can end their Western Conference final series tonight by beating the Bulls at Milwaukee.

In the American Basketball Association, the New York Nets won the East Division playoff title and qualified for the final round, trouncing the Kentucky Colonels 103-90 Saturday night and completing a 4-0 sweep. In the West, the Utah Stars — minus ailing center Zelmo Beaty — will try to oust the Indiana Pacers tonight in Game Five at Salt Lake City. Utah leads the series 3-1.

Opening lead — jack of clubs.

This deal, believe it or not, occurred in a French pair championship.

If you look at all four hands, it is plain to see that South has twelve of the coldest tricks you ever saw, since the trumps are divided 3-2. His only possible loser is a trump, since dummy's diamonds take care of declarer's hearts.

But the unlucky declarer who played the hand went down one,

and how this occurred makes quite a story.

West led the jack of clubs, won by declarer with the king. South then played a low trump to the king and on it George Theron, international star, dropped the queen!

This extraordinary play had the desired effect. Declarer naturally became imbued with the fear that East's queen was a singleton, in which case West's holding would be the J-9-7-2. In that case South could not afford to play a trump back to the ace, because West's J-9 would become tricks and the slam would go down the drain.

So, to guard against a 4-1 division, South entered his hand with a diamond and played a low spade towards the ten. This would hold West to one trick if he had the J-9-7-2. South was not concerned with the possibility of East's having the Q-J alone, for in that case his only loser would be a trump trick.

In the actual case, West won the second trump with the jack, as his partner surprisingly followed with a low trump, and it did not take him long to find the killing club return. Theron ruffed, and the net effect of his remarkable play was that the ice-cold slam went down one.

Water Pills for Weight Loss?

Two of my friends take water pills as regularly as I take aspirin. I can't convince them that this is no way to lose weight.

Miss T.K., Neb.

Dear Miss K.:
The notion that diuretic drugs, or water pills, used for the elimination of fluids is the answer to overweight is entirely false.

There may be a temporary loss of weight, but this readily returns when liquids are consumed.

These drugs are extremely useful in cases of heart, kidney and circulatory disorders. People with hormone imbalances who tend to accumulate fluid in the body tissues may also be given diuretics.

However, these are carefully chosen by the doctor and prescribed for very specific reasons and for very specific durations.

Are styes of the eyelid a sign of vitamin deficiency?

Mrs. E.A., W.Va.

Dear Mrs. A.:
A stye is an infection and inflammation of the tiny glands that lie beneath the skin of the eyelids.

Usually, they start with redness and swelling and then subside with applications of moist, warm dressings.

It is true that styes happen more frequently in people who are undernourished, anemic, and those with vitamin deficiencies. However, people who are well nourished may also develop styes because of eye strain, rubbing the eyes with unclean fingers, handkerchiefs or towels.

It seems that at every business meeting I have an uncontrollable desire to sneeze.

What is the best way of suppressing a sneeze?

Mr. C.L., Ark.

Dear Mr. L.:
A sneeze is a good healthy way to get rid of some irritant in the nose. It seems a pity not to enjoy it.

If, for social reasons, an impending sneeze must be stopped, firm pressure above the center of the upper lip will help to control it.

Under no circumstances should a sneeze be stopped by squeezing both nostrils together. Pressure thus built up in the nose can backfire into the Eustachian tubes and injure the eardrum.

Four persons cited in weekend mishaps

Three persons were charged by city police with various traffic offenses in four accidents which took place in the city this weekend and a nine year-old Main Street boy struck an auto while riding his bicycle. The Fayette County Sheriff's Department charged a Washington C.H. man with excessive speed in the one weekend accident they investigated.

Police charged Dean S. Byrd, 47, of 221 N. Fayette St., with driving while under the influence of alcohol at 12:50 a.m. Sunday, when he collided with a parked car owned by Harrison L. Brown, 1121 S. Hinde St., while backing from the parking lot of Bert's Bar, Delaware Street. Slight damage was incurred by both cars from the mishap.

A Dayton man was charged by police with a stop sign violation at 6:58 p.m. Sunday, when an accident occurred at the intersection of E. Temple and Blackstone streets.

Man loses $135 to robber trio

Cases of vandalism, property destruction and larceny were reported by the Fayette County Sheriff's Department over the weekend.

City police investigated incidents involving malicious destruction, robbery and larceny.

A Fayetteville man was waylaid coming out of the Emerald Inn, S. Fayette St. early Sunday morning by three men with whom he had been conversing while in the bar.

Donald E. Yahn told police he was followed by the men, who appeared to be in their early 20s, to his car in the municipal parking lot. They robbed him of the $135 his wallet contained and left.

Senate sets no-fault debate

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate is ready to debate a bill that would revolutionize the system under which automobile-accident victims are compensated.

The bill, to come up today, would assure that victims are paid for their losses regardless of who is at fault. It would require every car owner to buy insurance to protect himself and his family against losses arising from traffic accidents.

The no-fault bill heads the Senate agenda for the week as Congress returns from a 10-day recess.

Council will also be asked to consider the purchase from Charles Lee Associates of parts necessary to change enforcement plates of 549 parking meters. Cost estimate is 82 cents per meter.

Only one item is legislation appears on the Council agenda. Council will be considering an emergency ordinance to transfer certain funds.

Crowd at annual banquet tops 300

FFA degrees awarded at dinner

More than 300 persons attended the 12th annual Miami Trace High School Future Farmers of America awards banquet held Saturday night at the school.

The banquet is held annually to recognize parents of members and others throughout the county who have contributed to the success of the chapter and to present awards to those individual FFA members who have excelled throughout the past year.

The chapter presented the honorary Chapter Farmer degree, which is the highest award given to a non-FFA member, to Curtis Fleisher, principal of Miami Trace. Fleisher has always cooperated with the FFA chapter in its numerous activities and the members acknowledged this with the presentation of the award.

The two top chapter awards presented during the banquet were won by a Jeffersonville brother and sister, Scott and Beth Jenks, children of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Jenks. Scott, a senior, received the coveted Star Chapter Farmer award, which annually is presented to the outstanding member of the sophomore, junior or senior FFA class. Beth in turn received the Star Greenhand award which is presented to outstanding member of the freshman class. The awards are based on leadership, scholarship, character and FFA activities.

OTHER AWARDS presented at the banquet included the FFA Foundation awards. The awards are made possible by numerous donors in Fayette County to the Ohio FFA Foundation.

Recipients of the awards were Joel Vannorsdall, livestock production sheep; Scott Jenks, accounting and livestock production swine; Jim Eltzroth, dairy; Dave Streitenberger, crop production and soil and water management; Don Hutchens, agricultural mechanics and extemporaneous public speaking; John Mayer, home electricity and home improvement; Steve Mowery, agriculture placement; Bill Schaefer, prepared public speaking; Jessica Pendleton, creed; Jim McCoy and Don Davis, top fruit salesmen; Cheryl Hale, third place fruit salesman; Pat Brundage, top seed salesman; Schaefer and Randy Writzel, second and third place seed salesmen.

Scholarship awards were presented to Brandt Dunn and Yvonne McCarty, freshmen; Don Davis, sophomore, Jeff Smithson, junior, and Scott Jenks, senior.

Jim McCoy, Bill Schaefer and Scott Jenks won awards for their project books and shop project awards were won by Keith Montgomery, Wayne Jinks and Gary Taylor.

FFA leadership awards were presented to Jeff Wilt, Randy Beekman, Beth Jenks, Yvonne McCarty and Jay Pendleton, all freshmen; Jim McCoy and Jeff Schlichter, sophomores; Bill Schaefer, Bill Mayer and Bret Taylor, juniors, and Scott Jenks, Mike Coe, Don Hutchens, Gary Taylor and John Mayer, seniors.

CERTAINLY ONE of the highlights of the banquet was the address presented by Gerald Reid, state FFA reporter. Reid, a Miami Trace High School graduate and local FFA member, holds one of the highest offices in the state association. The state FFA reporter encouraged chapter members to reach and strive for the highest goal possible throughout life.

Other awards announced at the banquet which will be presented at the state convention April 26 and 27 at Columbus included the Miami Trace chapter as one of the top 10 chapters in the state; Scott Jenks, as a state officer candidate and one of the top three in state accounting contest, and Gerald Reid, one of the top five FFA members in the state. It was also announced that the state FFA degree will be awarded to Mike Coe, John Mayer, Bill

Schaefer, Dave Streitenberger and Gary Taylor, Ted Waddle will be recognized for receiving the American Farmer Degree in October.

Remarks were made by Paul Pulse, district supervisor, and Guy Foster, superintendent of Fayette County schools, who presented the retiring officers with past officer pins.

GARY TAYLOR, the retiring FFA chapter president, served as toastmaster and assisted in the presentation of numerous awards. Bill Schaefer delivered the invocation, and the meal was served by members of the Miami Trace FFA and GAA organizations.

Mike Coe, on behalf of the FFA chapter, welcomed the numerous guests who were in attendance. Don Davis, newly-elected chapter reporter, introduced guests. Chapter members and their parents were introduced by Jessica Pendleton, Jim McCoy, Jay Mossbarger and Joel Vannorsdall.

Connie Stayrook gave a few brief comments highlighting her past year as Chapter Sweetheart. Bret Taylor, newly-elected president, then crowned Connie Hughes, a junior, as the new queen who will represent the chapter this year.

Each year the chapter recognizes various individuals within the county who have assisted throughout the year. This year the FFA chapter presented appreciation awards to John Bernard, of MTHS faculty, Mrs. Dan Schlichter and Mrs. James Cornell, who were chaperones for the chapter's trip to Kansas City last fall, and Miss Sandy Kellenbarger and Miss Betsy Hartman, the FFA secretaries.

60 injured in New York building blast

NEW YORK (AP) — About 60 persons were injured today when an explosion, tentatively attributed to a gas accumulation in a commercial building, rocked the East Side of Manhattan not far from the United Nations.

Three Asian diplomatic missions in the neighborhood and hundreds of sleeping residents were shaken by the 6:58 a.m. explosion, which shattered windows for blocks around.

While firemen worked in the building, an anonymous caller telephoned police and said a bomb was set to go off in the building.

Fire Commissioner John O'Hagan cleared his men out as a precaution.

O'Hagan said 59 persons had been taken to hospitals. He said he saw about two dozen treated at the scene but did not know whether they were hospitalized afterwards.

The blast ripped the 26-story commercial structure and touched off a fire. But the injured persons were neighboring residents, principally the dazed occupants of Envoy Towers, a luxury apartment house adjoining the blast site.

O'Hagan said there were three possible causes of the blast — gas, inflammables or explosives — but told newsmen: "Evidence points to natural gas as the cause of the explosion."

He said a number of persons said they had smelled gas before the blast, but evidently no complaint was made.

He said there appeared to be no structural damage to the Envoy Towers building — "It's a matter of replacing windows for the most part," he said.

It was not known whether any persons were in the commercial building when the blast occurred.

The Envoy Towers, 300 E. 46th St., is the address of the Nepalese consulate general and the Nepalese U.N. Mission.

The severely damaged commercial building runs through the block between First and Second avenues to 45th Street.

The Indonesian and Laotian mission on East 45th Street were reported damaged by the force of the blast.

Bellevue Hospital, where 35 of the injured were taken, reported five persons seriously hurt with deep lacerations and bruises. The others were treated for lesser cuts and bruises and smoke inhalation, the hospital reported.

A resident of Envoy Towers, J. V. Hill, said he was awakened by the blast, which blew venetian blinds 25 feet across the room to an opposite wall and moved chairs and bookcases across the apartment.

Wartime waif, 2 U.S. GIs reunited after 32 years

NEW YORK (AP) — Greta Jean was only 8 in 1942 when her life was shattered in wartime England. Her mother dead and her sister evacuated, Greta Jean was befriended by Harry and Smitty, two American GIs.

She never forgot their kindness, and on Sunday she and Harry and Smitty and their wives got together again in an unlikely reunion spurred by an emotional letter she wrote.

Remembering the kind things Harry and Smitty had done for her three decades ago, Greta Jean Joliff, who now is the mother of three, reached out for them recently in a letter to "The Editor of the American Newspaper with the Widest Circulation."

The letter went to the New York Daily News, which published it. Publicity from the touching message reached Moksha Robert Wendell Smith and Harry Littlefield.

Judge's decision idles 3,100

SILVER BAY, Minn. (AP) — Two northeast Minnesota communities faced the prospect of becoming little more than huge welfare towns today as their main employer, the Reserve Mining Co., found itself shut down.

Silver Bay and Babbitt, company towns that are the respective homes of Reserve's processing plant and taconite mine, were said to have 90 per cent of their working populations affected by a federal judge's order to shut down Reserve because of pollution into Lake Superior.

Reserve, which produces 16 per cent of the iron ore used in the nation's steelmaking blast furnaces, was ordered shut down Saturday by U.S. District Judge Miles Lord. He said the pollution of 67,000 tons of rock wastes a day into Lake Superior was endangering the health of five communities in Minnesota and Wisconsin which draw their drinking water from the lake.

In all, 3,100 persons who earn $34 million a year are out of work in the two towns whose combined population is 6,500. Officials in the towns said virtually every one else who worked was there because of Reserve. The towns' tax base is Reserve, and they also face the prospect of being wiped out.

Lord said he had considered the tremendous economic impact of his decision, and said such an impact was not more important than the health of thousands of persons. Minnesota Gov. Wendell Anderson said Lord's decision was courageous and necessary.

The company said it would appeal.

Odd ball still puzzles scientists

NEW ORLEANS, La. (AP) — The origin of a 23-pound stainless steel ball found in Florida remains a puzzle, but "it's a nice, pleasant brain teaser," says an expert on unidentified flying objects.

Dr. J. Allen Hynek, chairman of the Department of Astronomy at Northwestern University in Evanston, Ill., and former adviser to the Air Force on UFOs, was one of five scientists who examined the ball here over the weekend.

Newsmen also looked at it, shook it and heard a faint rattle.

Terry Matthews, 21, of Jacksonville, Fla., who found the ball near his home last month, brought the ball here for inspection. He claims the ball, which is 8 inches in diameter, has moved by itself and made strange noises.

and Lord set another court session for today. Among other actions expected today is a report from the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers, which was ordered by Lord to come up with an immediate plan to guarantee clean and safe drinking water for the five towns, including the city of Duluth.

Reserve is owned jointly by two steel companies — Arco and Republic. The two said they had enough iron ore stockpiled to continue normal operations for a while, but said they were looking for alternate sources.

But Lord's order, handed down Saturday in Minneapolis, provides that Reserve Mining cannot reopen until it meets all state and federal pollution standards. That means construction of an on-land treatment plant which Reserve said during a nine-month trial would cost $400 million and take several years to complete.

Watergate enters Ohio politics

By The Associated Press
Both Democrats and Republicans have latched onto the issue of Watergate to flay their political opponents as the primary campaigns around the state warm up.

John Glenn, seeking the Democratic nomination for the U.S. Senate, and Franklin County Prosecutor George Smith, running for the Republican nomination as attorney general, were examples over the weekend.

Glenn used Watergate to attack his opponent, U.S. Sen. Howard M. Metzenbaum, a Cleveland millionaire.

"With public confidence in government officials deeply eroded—in large part because of the manipulations of campaign funds associated with Watergate—it is absolutely essential that candidates be completely open and forthright about accounting for every penny received and spent," Glenn said.

The former astronaut added, "Yet Howard Metzenbaum has set up eight dummy committees to handle his campaign war chest. A state law recently passed by the legislature will make Howard's eight committees illegal before the general election."

Glenn urged his opponent to "get in step with the state law."

Meanwhile, Republican Smith, who faces opposition from two others in the primary, lashed out at his possible Democratic opponent in the fall, Atty. Gen. William J. Brown.

Smith said, "The very evils which bred Watergate are now boiling in the state Attorney General's office."

The GOP candidate called Watergate "an outrage which will live in degradation as long as history is written" and added, "Political shenanigans at the office of the Ohio Attorney General parallel that of those officials indicted from Watergate."

By The Associated Press
Tornadoes slashed through Oshkosh, Wis., on Sunday, damaging more than 400 homes and prompting the state's acting governor to declare a state of emergency.

An elderly woman and an infant were killed as twisters touched down in a 35-mile stretch through four counties from Oshkosh south to Lomira.

Tornadoes also touched down in Texas and Illinois on Sunday, but Wisconsin was the hardest hit.

The Wisconsin tornadoes struck about 4 p.m.

A 74-year-old Campbellsport woman was killed when a tornado demolished her mobile home and a 5-month-old baby was killed when a tornado sent a tree crashing onto the car in which he was riding.

Property damage was most severe in Oshkosh, but no deaths were reported in the city. "It's miraculous that nobody got killed," said City Manager Gordon Jaeger. "The damage has got to be in the millions."

"You could see roofs flying through the air," an Oshkosh policeman said.

About 20 persons were reported injured in the four-county area hit by the tornadoes.

Secretary of State Robert C. Zimmerman, acting as governor, declared a state of emergency and sent National Guard troops to help Oshkosh authorities clean up and keep sightseers out.

In northern Texas, tornadoes and severe thunderstorms injured eight persons and caused widespread property damage.

Tornadoes in northern Illinois damaged about 20 homes and injured a few persons at Polo, while another touched down nearby at Stillman Valley. No major damage was reported.

Meanwhile, the danger of flooding still hung over Minn., N.D., but officials expressed optimism that the Souris River could be contained by present dikes.

The U.S. Army Corps of Engineers worked to complete two new channels and another dike. More than 3,000 persons were evacuated from a residential area on the flood plain as a precaution.

The river was expected to crest Thursday at about three feet above flood stage.

Nixon told of O'Brien tax audit

WASHINGTON (AP) — John Ehrlichman has admitted to Senate Watergate committee investigators that he briefed President Nixon on an audit of former Democratic party chairman Lawrence F. O'Brien's tax returns.

On other fronts, the Citizens for John Glenn Committee announced campaign receipts of $141,922 and expenses of $116,907 for the period ending April 15. The report was to be filed with the U.S. Secretary of State in Washington and the Ohio Secretary of State in Ohio today.

The Ohio Socialist Labor Party held a convention Sunday in Cleveland and selected their candidates for Senator and governor.

John O'Neill of Fairview Park accepted his party's nomination for the Senate and said, "My message won't vary too much from before except that conditions under capitalism have gotten much worse."

Joseph Pirincin of Cleveland was nominated for governor.

Both will run as write-in candidates since it would be too difficult to get the required signatures to get on the ballot, a party spokesman said.

It is not clear how much he was doing for Hughes while serving as Democratic chairman.

In the memo, Lenzner accused the Internal Revenue Service of putting "frustrating and debilitating roadblocks" in the path of the committee's investigation of the Hughes money. He also raised questions about the conduct of the IRS' own probe of the contribution.

This was denied Sunday by the IRS, which said that it "has been cooperating to the fullest extent consistent with the disclosure limitations of the tax laws."

An informed source said the committee has received some tax returns but not the worksheets, records and results of IRS interviews which it sought.

Lenzner's memo says the committee also is seeking copies of IRS sensitive case reports on Hughes Tool Co.; F. Donald Nixon, one of the President's brothers; Rebozo, and others.

Lenzner wrote that these reports had been transmitted to Ehrlichman, formerly Nixon's chief domestic adviser, at the White House, and from him to others, including Nixon.

Lenzner's memo says, "Indeed it is of interest that Ehrlichman admitted briefing the President on the results of the O'Brien tax audit, has admitted to inquiring of (Treasury) Secretary (George) Shultz of the results of that audit, and that the White House reconstructed chronology of the President's meetings with (former White House counsel) John Dean, as submitted to this committee, reflects that the conversation of Sept. 15, 1972, dealt primarily with the discussion of Larry O'Brien's tax audit."

An informed source said that Ehrlichman's briefing of Nixon occurred in late summer 1972.

The Lenzner memo says that it is crucial for the committee to obtain the sensitive case reports that the White House had and was acting upon during the IRS investigation.

"The information is also critical to determine its relationship, if any, to the break-in at DNC headquarters on June 17, 1972," Lenzner wrote.

He repeated the administration's belief that the economy will begin to improve in the second half of the year.

Humphrey, chairman of the Joint Economic Committee, also advocated creation of new public service jobs for the unemployed as well as a permanent agency to monitor and counter inflation.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey has joined two other key Senate Democrats in calling for an income tax cut to offset the impact of inflation and "stimulate the economy through consumer demand."

The Minnesota Democrat urged Sunday that Congress enact a tax cut to help low- and middle-income families faced with steep living costs "in the midst of a recession."

Humphrey's tax cut proposal came after Sens. Edward M. Kennedy, D-Mass., and Walter F. Mondale, D-Minn., had proposed taxes be cut by $5.9 billion, mainly through increasing the personal exemption on taxable income from $750 up to $825.

For a family of four, with taxable income of $8,000 to $12,000, the increased exemptions would mean a tax savings of about $106 at current tax rates. With taxable income of between

WASHINGTON (AP) — The White House is charting a fresh public relations campaign to coincide with President Nixon's responses to a pair of subpoenas from impeachment and Watergate investigators.

Presidential appearances in sections of the country considered generally friendly to his cause — and possibly a new Watergate "white paper" — are cornerstones of the effort to shore up Nixon's sagging popularity and to blunt impeachment moves.

On Thursday, the deadline for an answer to the House Judiciary Committee's subpoena for 42 tape recorded conversations, Nixon is scheduled to address a regional economic council in Jackson, Miss.

On May 3, one day after a response is due on special Watergate prosecutor Leon Jaworski's subpoena for tapes of 63 conversations, Nixon is to make a public appearance in Phoenix, Ariz.

Although White House spokesmen won't publicly disclose the President's plans, indications are mounting that Nixon will stop short of supplying the House committee with all the subpoenaed material. One aide has said some of the conversations were never recorded and that others deal with national security matters.

According to reliable reports, the public relations campaign is intended to convince Americans that Nixon's response to the committee request is, in the words of one official, "comprehensive and conclusive."

In recent days, Nixon aides reportedly have been completing transcripts of the subpoenaed tapes and working on a lengthy document that White House officials contend will prove the President's innocence of any Watergate wrongdoing.

Whether the document will be released publicly, or merely turned over to the committee, has not been disclosed.

Meanwhile, Sen. Charles Percy, R-Ill., told a nationwide television audience that he continued "to see reluctance, a dragging of feet, almost what might be considered a hindrance of justice" in White House failure to relinquish tapes sought by the House committee or the special prosecutor.

Percy, interviewed on ABC-TV's "Issues and Answers" program also said he would not be satisfied if Nixon turned over edited transcripts of the conversations instead of the actual tapes.

Artillery duel spreads on Heights

By The Associated Press

Artillery exchanges continued throughout the night between Syrian batteries and Israeli positions on strategic Mt. Hermon and spread today along the Golan Heights front, the Syrian military command said.

"Intermittent artillery fighting continued throughout the night between our forces and enemy forces on Mt. Hermon," a Syrian communique said.

"At 9:45 a.m. Monday, fighting by tanks, artillery and antitank missiles broke out on several other sectors of the Golan Heights front."

Sources in southern Lebanon said Israeli troops grabbed a Lebanese hilltop Sunday in their struggle with the Syrians for control of strategic Mt. Hermon.

The sources said the Israeli force occupied Shahar hilltop, on a southwest slope of Mt. Hermon, early Sunday and several mortar rounds fired by Lebanese troops failed to dislodge them.

There was no official comment from the Israeli or Lebanese governments. Both Israeli and Syrian air forces were reported in action Sunday.

The Israeli command said its planes attacked artillery and troop positions six miles behind Syrian lines after Syrian guns shelled Israeli positions on Mt. Hermon. The Israelis said the Syrians also sent one of their MIG jets against the Israeli positions on the mountain, but Israeli interceptors drove it off.

A Syrian communique reported Syrian forces battled the Israelis at 10 points in the Golan Heights and the Mt. Hermon area Sunday. It claimed a number of Israelis were killed or wounded and two observation posts were blown up.

Mt. Hermon straddles the Lebanese-Syrian border and is just north of the Israeli panhandle, giving the army that controls it a bird's eye view of the opposing armies on the Golan Heights, southeast Syria, including Damascus, and the villages in southern Lebanon from which Israel claims Palestinian guerrillas raid northern Israel.

Syrian and Israeli forces have been battling for positions on Hermon for more than two weeks. Israel captured the 7,220-foot south shoulder of the mountain in 1967, but Syria held on to the rest of it. Syrian commandos overran the Israeli positions at the start of the war last October, but before the cease-fire the Israelis drove the Syrians off the entire mountain.

In another Mideast development, the central committee of Israel's ruling Labor party decided to form a new government to replace Premier Golda Meir's cabinet instead of calling an election. It scheduled another meeting today to elect a successor to Mrs. Meir, who resigned two weeks ago amid renewed criticism of Israel's setbacks at the start of the October war.

Labor Minister Yitzhak Rabin and Information Minister Shimon Peres have declared themselves candidates. Finance Minister Pinhas Sapir, the strongest man in the party, has been resisting demands that he take the job.

Commissioners recommend 2 for tech college seats

The Fayette County Board of Commissioners Monday reported they had recommended two Washington C.H. area persons to be appointed to a five-county general and technical college board of trustees.

Chairman J. Herbert Perrill said commissioners recommended that Robert Rodgers, Rt. 6, Washington C.H., and Mrs. Charles (Marilyn) Mallow, 1342 Dayton Ave., be appointed to the board of trustees for the five-county college district. Ohio Gov. John J. Gilligan will make the appointment.

The Ohio Board of Regents during its regular session Friday approved a general and technical college to serve a five-county area in southwestern Ohio.

The school will serve students in Adams, Brown, Clinton, Fayette and Highland counties through two campuses.

ONE CAMPUS will be constructed in Brown County at the Tri-County Academic Center in Macon and the other will take the existing facilities at the former Clinton County Air Force Base in Wilmington, where the Laurel Oaks Joint Vocational School is presently situated.

The college is expected to open in the fall of 1976.

Commissioners were also scheduled to review construction profiles from Charles P. Wagner, Fayette County engineer, concerning the Indian Creek ditch project in Wayne Township.

Following the review of construction profiles, the board will schedule a date for the final hearing on the project.

The petition for improvements of the existing ditch was submitted to commissioners by William Shepard, Willard N. Parrett, Dr. Joseph M. Herbert and Lucille R. Braden.

The ditch, which starts on the Camp Grove Road near Ohio 753-S and drains the village of Good Hope, affects approximately 157 landowners and 5,700 acres of land. The approximate cost for improvements is $60,000, according to Wagner's preliminary report.

In other matters, Reginald (Chink) Davis, county dog warden, submitted 30 reports for the week.

American warships leave Indian Ocean

WASHINGTON (AP) — U.S. Navy warships are leaving the Indian Ocean for the first time since last fall's Middle East crisis.

Pentagon sources indicate it probably will be several months before the American Navy returns to that ocean, where its presence has been protested by India and some other countries, including Russia.

The carrier Kitty Hawk, several escorting destroyers and an oiler were expected to sail through the Strait of Malacca today. The task group may stop at Singapore before heading for the main 7th Fleet base at Subic Bay in the Philippines.

The Kitty Hawk was the third U.S. carrier to cruise the Indian Ocean since last October when Arab oil producers clamped an oil embargo on the United States. Tanker routes to the big oil-producing countries around the Persian Gulf pass through those waters.

Underscoring the new importance of the Indian Ocean, Secretary of Defense James R. Schlesinger said at the time that the presence of U.S. warships there "will be more frequent and more regular in the past."

In advance of the Kitty Hawk's passage through the Malacca Strait, Navy and defense officials declined to acknowledge the movement or give any reason for not replacing the U.S. task group at this time.

The Nixon administration may try to use the break in deployments to cool the diplomatic heat and perhaps win over reluctant senators to the Navy's plan for a fleet base at the Indian Ocean island of Diego Garcia.

The House has approved the base proposal, but the Senate Armed Services Committee has balked.

The Navy argues it needs the Diego Garcia base because its fleet units sailing the Indian Ocean are dependent on support from Subic Bay, some 4,000 miles from the critical waters near Iran and the Arabian peninsula.

Senate opponents and a number of nations including India, New Zealand, Indonesia and Australia say they fear an American naval base and warships in the Indian Ocean will cause Russia to increase its naval presence there.

Tax relief plan

(Continued from Page 1) Inflation is now running at a rate of more than 10 per cent annually. During the first three months of this year, consumer prices rose at an annual rate of 14.5 per cent.

The government also announced last week that in the same three months, the nation's total output of goods and services dropped at an annual rate of 5.8 per cent, the biggest decline since the recession of 1958.

Both House Speaker Carl Albert, D-Okla., and Rep. Wilbur D. Mills, chairman of the powerful House Ways and Means Committee, have indicated they would support such a move to cut taxes unless there is a marked upturn in the economy soon.

Humphrey did not specify how the tax cut he favors should be put into effect.

DONALD BOCK

Two runaway boys sought

Two Fayette County area boys were reported as runaways by the Washington C.H. Police Department today.

Missing are Donald Roy Bock, 16, of 223 East St., and Rex Martin Lane, 15, of Sabina. They were last seen at 9:30 a.m. Sunday at the Gregg Street Church of Christ in Christian Union.

Bock is described as 6-foot-1, 160 pounds, brown hair, green eyes, wearing a brown levi jacket, brown pants, and brown boots. He is epileptic and without medication, police said.

Lane is described as 5-foot-11, 165 pounds, brown hair, blue eyes and wearing a rust colored swede jacket, levis or light blue denim jeans. He was also wearing dog tags with the name "Lisa Blair" engraved on them.

The boys were last heard from when they called their girlfriends in Washington C.H. from Laurel, Md., Sunday night.

If anyone has any information concerning the two boys, call the Police Department. Bock must have his medicine for his epilepsy condition, according to police.

NEW YORK (AP) — The criminal conspiracy trial of former Cabinet members John N. Mitchell and Maurice H. Stans is expected to go to the jury sometime this week.

Two Washington newspaper reporters are scheduled to testify today at the trial of Mitchell, the former attorney general, and Stans, onetime commerce secretary, as part of a government effort to bolster testimony that contradicts Mitchell's sworn statements.

LUCASVILLE, Ohio (AP) — Inmates of the Southern Ohio Correctional Facility were to tell the state Sundry Claims Board today about losing personal belongings during a shakedown at the prison last summer.

The board was to begin hearing the cases of 165 inmates who said they lost possessions in the shakedown.

ATHENS, Ohio (AP) — Ohio University student workers hit the picket lines as early as 4 a.m. today, beginning a campus-wide strike for union recognition.

The Student Workers Union, voted for the strike last week, following a one-day walkout at one of the Athens campus' cafeterias.

Gasoline price increase likely

ORLANDO, Fla. (AP) — By summer, motorists may be paying 60 cents for a gallon of gasoline, says the nation's top energy official.

Federal energy chief John C. Sawhill said Sunday he expected gasoline prices to go up a few more cents and to level off at about 60 cents a gallon this summer. He told reporters covering a meeting of the National Oil Jobbers Council that he didn't expect gasoline prices to go much above that level.

Current average gasoline prices are about 53 cents a gallon for regular and 56 cents for premium. Sawhill didn't say whether he was referring to the price of premium, regular or the average.

Meanwhile, a New Jersey official said gasoline usage had risen dramatically in his state since an odd-even form of rationing was suspended last month. He said the program may be put back into effect this week because supplies are running short.

Sawhill, who was named by President Nixon to succeed William E. Simon as head of the Federal Energy Office when Simon was selected as treasury secretary, said motorists could look forward to new gasoline shortages if they do not continue to practice conservation.

If Americans continue driving at lower speed limits and limit nonessential use of cars, there will be sufficient gasoline for summer vacations, he said.

Sawhill also urged states to retain 55 mile an hour speed limits. He said the lower limit "saves energy and lives and should become a permanent part of our way of life."

U.S. economic play poorly plotted

By JOHN CUNIFF
AP Business Analyst
NEW YORK (AP) — The poorly plotted play now being enacted on the economic stage could hardly be more diabolical, short of a depression. Few economists predict that ultimate blow, but in the year's first quarter the economy took its biggest decline in 16 years and still may not be on the road to recovery. The ingredients of the real-life economic drama are similar to those in the make-believe world of theater: pathos, tragedy, despair, irony, crisis, desire and a good measure of cynical humor. Prices are rising and restraints on prices are coming off at the end of the month. The stock market is almost lifeless. Mutual funds continue to be cashed in. The savings rate is well below the 7.3 per cent for 1973's final months. Widespread shortages are reported, adding to price pressures and lessening the buying power of the paycheck. And the job market, although strong in the latest reports, is threatened with weakness. The housing market has dipped after showing signs of strength early in the year. And now, with interest rates, so high, money reportedly is abandoning the relatively low yields of savings and loan accounts for bigger things elsewhere. That lessens the ability of the S&Ls to grant mortgages. This is bad enough, but many of the scenes are being played against a backdrop of soaring profits for some companies and desperate fights for life by other businesses. And while the great American dream of upward mobility continues as a goal,

FBI reports no progress in Hearst case

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — "We've turned a lot of areas upside down," but FBI agent Charles Bates says authorities still don't know the whereabouts of Patricia Hearst or her abductors. Bates, special agent in charge of the investigation, denied a Newsweek magazine story that FBI agents, posing as postmen and trash collectors, had infiltrated the neighborhood where the Symbionese Liberation Army is hiding but had not found the exact location of the terrorist group. "That certainly isn't true," said Bates. "We haven't had any agents disguised as postmen or garbage men." Bates said the search for Miss Hearst remains widespread and not limited to a specific neighborhood. Authorities believe the SLA, which claims to have kidnapped Miss Hearst, numbers about 25 heavily armed persons. In another development, police said over the weekend they wanted to give a lie detector test to a roommate of one of Miss Hearst's cousins who claims he was abducted last Thursday. Police said Van R. Bush, a roommate of William R. Hearst II, told them he was grabbed by three men who blindfolded him and drove him around for 2½ hours. They said Bush, 31, told them he was released after he convinced the men he was not young Hearst. He said the men repeatedly called him "Billy," which is the name young Hearst goes by. Miss Hearst, 20, daughter of Randolph A. Hearst, president and editor of the San Francisco Examiner, was dragged from her Berkeley apartment Feb. 4. Her fiancé, Steven Weed, was beaten by her abductors. Police said Weed attended a rally Sunday night that was also attended by a woman officers thought was alleged SLA member Nancy Ling Perry. But the woman turned out to be a Berkeley resident who police said was released after she paid a $13 outstanding traffic fine.

Kentucky school leveled by blaze

MAYSVILLE, Ky. (AP) — About 450 lower grade students are without classrooms today after a fire leveled the Washington Elementary School Sunday. Also lost in the blaze was the gymnasium. Fire officials said an investigation was under way. Faulty wire was suspected as the cause, according to Washington Fire Chief James Maher. Charles Straub, superintendent of Mason County schools, said the two-building complex was insured for $292,000. The insurance represents only 20 per cent of the cost needed to rebuild the school, Straub said.

reality intrudes with its somber report that millions of Americans are going nowhere, and haven't for three years or more. Not everyone is in that predicament, however. Managers of some huge, publicly owned corporations are receiving salaries, fringes and stock options several times the salary of the president of the United States. The explanations given for such managerial incomes is that today's big companies employ thousands of workers whose pay scales must be graduated to provide incentives to advancement. At General Motors, there are 811,000 employees below the chairman, R.C. Gerstenberg, and the president, E.N. Cole, which helped push their salaries to $923,000 and $833,000 respectively. GM had a good year, with net income up more than $235 million to $2.4 billion, but the percent of each sales dollar that turned up as profit dropped to 6.7 per cent from 7.1 per cent in 1972. Such pay scales may or may not be justified. Enormous responsibilities accompany the top position at any large corporation. GM and others are large almost beyond comprehension, more powerful than many of the world's nations. It is the contrast that is bound to upset many Americans — the expanse between their own financial condition and the comfort and ease they feel is possible on the executive's salary. But many of these same people are forgetting another ingredient of the economic script — their level of expectations. Twenty years ago many would have been satisfied with much less than they now have.

Ohio Homestead tax exemption deadline near

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Ohioans over 65 years old have until June 3 to file for their 1974 homestead exemption which gives them relief from property taxes, Gov. John J. Gilligan said. "Even though a property owner qualified for and received a reduction in real property taxes on the 1973 tax duplicate under the homestead exemption, he must reapply this year," Gilligan said. To be eligible, he said, a person must meet the age requirement, reside in the homestead and the owner and spouse must have income of not more than $10,000 annually, including pensions and Social Security.

Your Horoscope

By FRANCES DRAKE

Look in the section in which your birthday comes and find what your outlook is, according to the stars.

TUESDAY, APRIL 23

ARIES

(March 21 to April 20)

Quite unexpectedly you may find the solution to a difficult problem. Another's casual words could put you on the right track.

TAURUS

(April 21 to May 21)

Here is a chance to advance, but with precisely directed endeavor and theme. Your innate artistry and finesse will be big aids.

GEMINI

(May 22 to June 21)

You can afford to be a bit daring now. Do something — anything — to lessen the depth of any rut in which you may find yourself.

CANCER

(June 22 to July 23)

Give careful thought to financial affairs — not only business-wise but where your personal budget is concerned. In speculative matters, go slow.

LEO

(July 24 to Aug. 23)

Group activity highly favored. Stars indicate now is the time for you to make some exciting new contacts.

VIRGO

(Aug. 24 to Sept. 23)

You have several dandy prospects in sight. Even if results are not immediately forthcoming, good efforts will make a favorable impression, hasten rewards.

LIBRA

(Sept. 24 to Oct. 23)

Emotionalism or temperamentalism could get you into trouble if not careful. Self-control needed — especially in romantic situations.

SCORPIO

(Oct. 24 to Nov. 22)

Present conditions may not warrant certain expansion you've in mind. Go slow if conservative opposition arises.

SAGITTARIUS

(Nov. 23 to Dec. 21)

Jupiter, favorable, stimulates your skills and talents. You should accomplish much. Keep the ball rolling, the door to opportunity open.

CAPRICORN

(Dec. 22 to Jan. 20)

Keep on the lookout for a chance to get a better work assignment or some fringe benefit. Taking on an extra chore without being asked could hasten such a bonus.

AQUARIUS

(Jan. 21 to Feb. 19)

A period for re-evaluation. Try to learn just where you stand in relation to other persons, especially competitors. Take nothing — and no one — for granted.

PISCES

(Feb. 20 to March 20)

Whatever your plans, take into account new trends and ideas and, if necessary, change maneuvers to fit the current picture. Be dauntless, ready for the unexpected.

YOU BORN TODAY are gifted with a fine mind, lofty ambitions and unusual versatility in the arts — especially in painting, writing and sculpture. If you do not take up one of these as a career, in fact, you will undoubtedly pursue one or the other as an avocation — which could eventually become a second career. You are highly efficient, a lover of neatness and order, but must take care that you don't go too far along these lines and become a "fussbudget." With a great affinity for the outdoors, you could become a successful agriculturist, botanist or landscape artist. Teaching (especially in the fields of history and archeology) is a "natural" for you, and your love for your fellowman makes you a truly dedicated physician or nurse. Do try to overcome a tendency toward obstinacy.

X-rated movie being shown to promote solon's election

ANN ARBOR, Mich. (AP)—Other politicians hold fish fries and hot dog roasts to raise campaign money. Perry Bullard is showing an X-rated movie.

Bullard's showing of "Deep Throat" this weekend is in keeping with his unorthodox ways in the Michigan House since his election in 1972 by Ann Arbor's liberal student community.

"The Democrats are really upset," Bullard remarked. "But I should stress they had nothing to do with this."

It's not the first time the Democrats have been upset with the 31-year-old lawyer.

He has acknowledged using marijuana, and once smoked it at a public rally to urge the removal of criminal sanctions for the use of pot; he has been arrested for hitchhiking; and now he plans to show "Deep Throat."

"I approved the showing of this film by the group because I believe in the fundamental First Amendment right of any adult individual to see any movie that person desires to see," he said.

He predicted he might raise as much as $2,000 from the six showings of the movie at the University of Michigan Friday and Saturday nights.

But a ruling by university counsel Roderick Dean apparently bars the money from direct use in the Bullard campaign. Dean said Thursday that use of a public institution for political purposes might be illegal.

A spokesman for the Bullard's campaign organization said the money might be used for public purposes in Bullard's district office or on campus for his support.

No one is opposing Bullard in the Democratic primary this spring.

State Rep. Dan Angel, a Republican from Marshall, issued a news release calling the showing a "debasement" of the legislature. The statement said Bullard was "utterly without redeeming social value."

As of Oct. 31, 1972, there were 20,828 officers and 1,984 civilians in the police roster in New York. Chicago was next with 13,125 officers and 1,286 civilians.

'Niger' and 'Raisin' win Tony awards

NEW YORK (AP) — Two shows about black family life, the drama "The River Niger" and the musical "Raisin," are Broadway's 1974 Tony Award champions.

Cited for stellar performances in plays were Michael Moriarty of "Find Your Way Home" and Colleen Dewhurst of "A Moon for the Misbegotten." Winners of musical star trophies were Virginia Capers of "Raisin" and Christopher Plummer of "Cyrano."

The winners in 18 competitive categories were announced Sunday night during a three-hour marathon of grabbag special acts and "thank you" speeches broadcast over the ABC television network.

There were also nine special awards to other people the League of New York Theaters wanted to honor.

Most interesting aspects of the 28th annual distribution of the silver medallions were the ethnic production domination of key prizes and an apparent desire to spread the remaining glory around.

"Raisin" was chosen as the best musical, but the 435 members of the theatrical profession who participate in the secret balloting decided the best book for a musical was by Hugh Wheeler for "Candide," and the best score was "Gigi" by Frederick Loewe and Alan Jay Lerner.

"Candide," ruled ineligible for the main trophy because it was a revival, received the additional consolation of one of the honorary awards as well as scooping the best musical director prize for Harold Prince; best costumes, Franne Lee; and best scenery, Mrs. Lee again with her husband Eugene.

Eugene O'Neill's "A Moon for the Misbegotten" also got a special prize as a revival that couldn't vie for the top award, but took the drama director award for Jose Quintero, supporting actor for Ed Flanders as well as the medallion for Miss Dewhurst.

Area students place at Ohio Science Fair

Four area students participated in the Ohio Science Fair in Columbus Saturday. All fared well, and one received balated district honors.

Participating were David and Stuart Foster, and Tom Payton of Miami Trace and the school's "adopted son," Rick Binzel.

Binzel, a freshman at Washington Junior High School, entered under the Miami Trace banner because the city schools have no extra-curricular science program. His enthusiasm for science has been exemplified through the Miami Trace Science Club, under the direction of Harold Gass, science teacher.

Since competition for the West District was cancelled by the tornado which struck down Central State University, West District winners in biological and physical science were chosen at the state finals.

David Foster, a senior at Miami Trace, received the first place award in the physical science division. He will participate in the Wooster Science Academy seminars this weekend. The seminar is open to the first place winner in each division from each Ohio district.

David Foster and Binzel received "superior" ratings while projects entered by Stuart Foster and Payton were judged to be "excellent." More than 1,000 Ohio students entered projects at the fair.

DAVID FOSTER'S winning project concerned itself with the "Applications of Astronomical Photography." By photographing areas of the sky and applying advanced mathematical calculations, Foster determined the exact positions of certain heavenly bodies. This was done by considering their position in the photographs to other stars and bodies whose positions are known.

Stuart Foster, a freshman, used dry ice and heating coils to create miniature tornadoes in a closed chamber. His study in the cause of tornadoes focuses on the basic principles currently being studied by top scientists throughout the country, especially in light of the recent wave of destruction.

Payton, a senior, demonstrated how infra-red photography can be used to detect diseases in plants. The disease causes distortions in an infra-red photograph which cannot be seen with the naked eye.

Binzel, who is an avid astronomer, had used various photographic techniques and development processes to achieve the best possible photos of the moon. He explained the advantages and disadvantages of each type of photography when used with a small telescope.

C. of C. posts week's agenda

A schedule of activities for the coming week for the Washington C.H. Area Chamber of Commerce has been announced by president Fred L. Domenico.

The 1974-75 budget committee will meet at 4 p.m. Tuesday with president-elect Bruce Galloway to start budget preparations for the new fiscal year beginning July 1.

On Wednesday, the Chamber of Commerce will lead an area delegation to Columbus to discuss future development of Deer Creek State Park with William B. Nye, director of the Ohio Department of Natural Resources.

Representatives of New Holland, Circleville, Chillicothe, Mount Sterling and the Columbus Chamber of Commerce are scheduled to attend the 1:30 p.m. session in the director's office. Richard Stinson, Jim Dunn, Domenico and Galloway will be representing the Washington C.H. Area Chamber of Commerce.

Kenneth Payton, chairman of the accreditation committee in charge of planning and development, will meet with his committee at 8 a.m. Thursday in the Washington Savings Bank.

Although no time has been set, the Chamber's public relations task force is scheduled to meet early in the week. Leroy Barton is the Chamber director in charge.

President Domenico reminds all members they have until May 1 to cast their ballots for new directors, and return the 1974-75 program of work questionnaires.

747 W. ELM ST. WASHINGTON C.H., OHIO

FLEA TIME AGAIN — One of the last remnants of the outdoor market - the Flea Market - began its summer run in Washington C.H. this weekend. Almost everything from bottle caps to automobiles were on sale as hundreds of exhibitors and thousands of buyers swarmed the Fairground Saturday and Sunday. Above is one exhibitor's display of oriental brass, pottery and sculptured items.

Good weather swells collector crowd

The weather was favorable, and buying, selling and trading were brisk at the first of the 1974 "summer shows" sponsored by the Central Ohio Gun and Indian Relic Collectors Association.

Association officials said approximately 3,000 cars were on the Fairground during the two-day event, and total attendance probably was near 10,000.

The number of exhibitors was close to the 700 mark, most of them setting up shop both Saturday and Sunday. The three main Fairground buildings were filled with exhibits and the flea market aspect of the show spilled over the grounds and into some of the livestock barns.

Competition at the April show was for 41 caliber Remington Derringer pistols, with a local man carrying away the trophy for his double Derringer in a case. Winners' names are not released because of the possibility of theft.

The next summer show will be held Saturday and Sunday, May 18 and 19.

Road drainage, patching work slated

Miscellaneous projects have been planned by state highway and county road crews this week.

Bill Duncan, general foreman of the city street department, was unavailable for release of the work schedule for the city crews.

Drainage projects will top the worksheet for members of the county road this week.

Charles P. Wagner, Fayette County engineer, said the crews will be occupied with drainage projects on the York Road in Perry Township, the Mills Road in Wayne Township and the Washington-Waterloo Road. Wagner also said the crews will be installing and repairing culverts in various locations throughout Fayette County.

State highway workmen will be patching roads in various locations and sealing cracks on Ohio 734, east of Jeffersonville, and on U.S. 35-S, according to Gene Fitzpatrick, superintendent of the Ohio Department of Transportation garage in Fayette County.

Fitzpatrick said the state crews will also be handling a ditching project on U.S. 35 while crews will be disinfecting roadside rest areas along I-71 in Fayette, Franklin, Delaware, Morrow and Pickaway counties. Trash crews will also be in operation.

Cleveland walkout continues

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP)— An emergency meeting of labor leaders was asked Sunday by the president of the fire fighters' local in an effort to maintain solidarity among 13 unions bargaining with the city.

Joseph A. Gannon, head of Local 93 of the International Association of Firefighters, said the meeting would be an effort to keep Mayor Ralph J. Perk from "pitting one union man against another in a union war."

The call was issued after the city reportedly offered the unions the choice of accepting layoffs or pegging a wage increase to repeal of a city charter amendment guaranteeing that Cleveland safety forces will be the highest paid in the state.

"We are all in the AFL-CIO and one affiliate does not attack another affiliate," Gannon said.

The talks were scheduled to resume at 2 p.m. today under supervision of Common Pleas Court Judge John McMahon. The talks broke off early Saturday evening with no word of progress.

Earlier Sunday, Clevelanders apparently struck back at the week-old walkout by city truck drivers. Strollers enjoying a sunny day downtown found

"With emotion and gratitude I accept the mandate of the Colombian people," Lopez said in a statement read to newsmen.

RICHMOND, Ind. (AP) — Christopher Bailey, 19, may go through life hating machines.

The young man was arrested by an officer who saw him kicking the front of a soft-drink machine. "It took me for 60 cents," he protested.

CHECK OUT YOUR LIBRARY — National Library Week is an excellent time to stop in to the Carnegie Public Library. If you haven't been there before the staff, pictured above, will be glad to show you around. If you have books from the library which you never quite got around to

"Grow With Books" and "Get It All Together at Your Library" are the dual themes of the 17th annual National Library Week, April 21-27.

Carnegie Public Library here will be participating in activities which point out the many facets of the learning center. The local library is a member of the Southwestern Ohio Rural Libraries (SWORL) association. The seven county, 13-library organization works together to provide better and more varied service to library patrons.

This year's dual themes for National Library Week will attempt to point out that the SWORL libraries do not serve by books alone. In addition to the books, there is also a whole spectrum of phonograph records and cassette tapes, magazines and periodicals, as well as special traveling collections.

Local Librarian Kris Amsbary points out that every reader can grow intellectually, emotionally and personally throughout his lifetime by the use of books and other library materials.

SINCE its inception in 1958, National Library Week has sought to create a better read, better informed America by encouraging lifetime reading habits and stimulating greater library use.

National Library Week is sponsored by the National Book Committee in cooperation with the American Library Association.

Locally, it is seen as a good opportunity to get to know Carnegie Public Library better. The facility could more aptly be called an information center. It has more than 48,000 books, 130 current magazines and periodicals and 1,100 phonograph records and tapes.

Last year, patrons borrowed more than 121,000 books and materials from the library.

The hours of service at the library are Monday through Friday from 9 a.m. to 8 p.m. and (except Thursday) 9-12 on Saturdays from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m.

SPECIAL book collections on local history and other areas of local interest are on the shelves. A copier service is available at 10 cents per page.

Books can be loaned for two weeks and may be renewed for an additional two weeks. To call the library, dial 335-2540.

If the book you want is out, ask for the book to be put on reserve. And, if the book you want is not in the library collection, ask the librarian to see if it can be borrowed through the hotline. As a member of SWORL, the library has a special contract service with the Public Library of Cincinnati for borrowing books, records, cassettes

Ohio firms scramble for iron ore

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP)—Two of Ohio's steel giants scrambled for raw materials while a federal judge was to hear objections today to his order closing a Minnesota mining plant closed for allegedly polluting Lake Superior.

Judge Miles Lord ordered a Reserve Mining Co. facility closed Saturday after a nine-month trial, accused the firm of delaying tactics and not producing requested alternative disposal plans for taconite tailings.

Reserve maintains the wastes are not hazardous, and a company spokesman in Minneapolis said the company might appeal.

There would be no immediate effect on Reserve's parent companies, Armco or Republic Steel corporations, company spokesmen said Sunday. But spokesmen for the Ohio firms said efforts to secure iron ore from other sources were underway.

"We are not prepared to say a cut-back will or won't result while we are considering what further legal steps might be taken," an Armco spokesman at the Middletown headquarters said.

Republic, the nation's fourth largest steel producer which has headquarters here, would draw on stockpiles until other suppliers were found, Henry W. Hopwood, vice president for public relations, said.

Mrs. Mary L. Davis, librarian, will be held for the general public and also for school children and their parents.

Mrs. Davis said she specifically urges all fifth and sixth grade students and their parents to attend the event since the junior high school will become a middle school in September.

There will be several demonstrations featuring the uses of various types of audio-visual equipment, tape recorders, film projectors and overhead projectors. There will also be book displays.

Winners of the annual National Library Week poster and media contest, plus all other entries will be on display. Refreshments will be served by the school library aides.

Padres win second game to prevent series sweep

Reds split season's first doubleheader

CINCINNATI (AP) — Cincinnati Reds' shortstop Dave Concepcion had a headache Sunday that gave the San Diego Padres a pain in the neck. Then

Umpires have problems in Sunday's ballgames

By The Associated Press

Flattery is supposed to get you nowhere, but it got Toby Harrah of the Texas Rangers a quick trip to the dugout Sunday.

The Rangers, trailing the Minnesota Twins 5-0, had the bases loaded with none out — Harrah was on second — in the seventh inning of a game they eventually lost 8-2. Jeff Burroughs slashed a grounder toward short and the ball hit Harrah.

That's when the fun started. Ron Luciano, the second base umpire, ruled Harrah deliberately ran into the ball. He called both Harrah and Burroughs out for a double play with no advance.

Luciano told Harrah, "A good baserunner would try to get hit in a situation like that and you're a good baserunner."

Since their's wasn't much he could say to that, Harrah's next performance was a slow trip back to the bench while Burroughs was ejected from the game and Manager Billy Martin protested it.

The umpires also had their problems in Baltimore. The Orioles edged New York 6-5 in 13 innings in the opener of a doubleheader and then protested the nightcap, which they lost 3-0. Baltimore complained that Yankee coach Whitey Ford violated the rules by making two trips to the mound in the sixth inning with the same batter at the plate to talk to hurler Sam McDowell.

Craig Nettles drove in his 20th run of the season with a single in the sixth inning of the nightcap and stretched his RBI streak to nine consecutive games, two short of the major league record.

The Orioles won the first game in 13 innings when rookie Mike Reinbach singled home Earl Williams from second base. Nettles hit his ninth home run in the opener.

Sam McDowell collaborated with Fred Beene on the four-hit shutout in the nightcap, pitching the first 51-3 innings.

Angels 9, A's 5
Lee Stanton's three-run homer capped a six-run California explosion in the eighth inning against Vida Blue, Rolie Fingers and Darold Knowles.

Tigers 6, Brewers 5
Jim Northrup doubled with two out in the 14th inning off Tom Murphy and scored the winning run on Al Kaline's single.

Red Sox 6, Indians 5
Dick McAuliffe scored the winning run from second base on a wild pickoff throw by Cleveland pitcher Milt Wilcox in the 10th inning.

White Sox 11, Royals 7
Brian Downing smashed a bases-loaded triple to highlight a seven-run sixth-inning uprising.

The Reds took the opener 10-1 as Concepcion drilled his first career grand slam.

"I had a bad headache since this morning," said Concepcion. The throbbing eased a bit after his grand slam capped a seven-run first inning.

While Greif cooled off Cincinnati's booming bats, ex-Reds Bobby Tolan and Bob Barton got in their licks.

Tolan, traded during the winter after a clubhouse fracas with a Reds' official, scored twice to answer a chorus of boos. Barton, dropped by Cincinnati a year ago, cracked a pair of run-scoring singles.

The losing pitcher was Clay Kirby 1-2, who the Padres reluctantly turned loose for Tolan and reliever Dave Tomlin.

Ex-Padre Fred Norman, 1-1, won the opener, fanning nine in eight innings of three-hit ball.

Barton savored the satisfaction of his contribution. A year ago he was a third string catcher for the Reds when given his unconditional release.

He returned to his real estate business in California, convinced his baseball career was over.

But 10 days before the Padres opened spring training he made a decision to come out of retirement. He beat out veteran catcher Pat Corrales and was back in baseball.

The 15-year pro lends stability to the Padres' young pitching staff, according to McNamara. And he proved he still had zip in his throwing arm by gunning down would-be base stealer Pete Rose.

Barton's experience helped settle down Greif, who got off to a shaky start. The 6-foot-5 righthander walked six batters and hit another among the first 16 he faced.

But he limited the Reds to two hits in six innings and went on to claim his first victory of 1974 after three losses.

Tony Perez continued his home run binge with his sixth of the spring. It came in the opener. He and Concepcion share the team leadership in runs batted in with 15 each.

Cincinnati sends rookie Mike McQueen against Detroit tonight in an exhibition charity game. The Padres return to the West Coast to open a home stand Tuesday with the New York Mets.

Washington C.H. Blue Lions were triumphant only once in three tries over the weekend. They lost to Circleville 8-7, won the first game of a doubleheader from Lexington 13-5, but dropped the nightcap by a score of 13-7.

In the game with Circleville, the Lions did more for Circleville than the Tigers themselves. The Lionmen totaled six errors in the contest, three of which were recorded in the third inning when the Tigers sent five unearned runs across the plate. Also instrumental in the bout, the Lions walked in the deciding run in the bottom of the seventh inning. The winning pitcher for the Tigers was Bob Thomas and the loser for Washington C.H. was Larry Dumford.

In the first section of the twin-bill, the Lions cranked up their cannon power and blasted for 13 runs and 11 hits. Mark Johnson crashed a solo home run and senior Jeff Wallace smashed a grand slam home run in the game. Greg McCune was the winner for Washington C.H., allowing just five runs on nine hits. The loser for Lexington was Joe Weirick.

In the second game of the double

feature, both teams smacked 26 hits between them but Lexington came away with 13 runs to Washington's 7. Mark Sutter of Lexington matched Wallace's earlier feat and hit a grand slam homer and Greg Duck added a solo circuit clout. Gilbert Sparkman had a four-for-four game, singling twice, doubling and adding a solo homer of his own. The Lexington winner was Steve Thomas and the loser for Washington C.H. was Mark Lamberson.

The three weekend games send the Blue Lions' season overall mark to 3-6, while their South Central Ohio League mark suffers at 2-3. The inability to get the clutch hit at the right time was evident in last week's games. In the last six games, Washington C.H. had left a total of 63 men on base.

Garth Cox selected for prep grid classic

BY LARRY WATTS

Record Herald Sports Editor

Although the 1973 football season ended in November, the honors are still rolling in for Garth Cox, Washington Senior High's outstanding offensive guard and defensive tackle.

Cox, a 6-5, 240 pound senior, has been selected as an offensive guard for the South's 33-man squad in the Ohio High School North-South all-star classic. The game will take place in Canton's Fawcett Stadium on August 2. Cox is to report for practice on July 22.

During his senior year, Cox was honorary captain of the All-South Central Ohio League offensive line, a first team all-district selection at defensive tackle and was rewarded honorable mention honors all-state. On defense, he had 84 tackles and helped his teammates hold the opponents to a total of 420 yards rushing. The Lions, who were rated as the top team in the Associated Press poll, gained 2,654 yards rushing, as Cox was one of the main assets to the offensive line.

Cox recently signed to play football with the Ohio State Buckeyes. Carrying a 3.2 scholastic average, he plans to pursue political science and a pre-law curriculum at OSU.

In being named to the South team, Cox becomes the fifth Washington player in the last five years to receive the honor. The other four players were Lowell Harper (1970), Jim Heath (1972), Steve Ross (1972) and Mike Domenico (1973).

Cox is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cox, 902 S. Main St.

CIRCLEVILLE — Miami Trace's reserve squad gave up a total of 29 runs Saturday afternoon, as the Panthers dropped a doubleheader to Circleville, 10-8 and 19-15.

Miami Trace only had four extra base hits in the two slugfests. Ken Darling doubled in the first game, Allan Conner had a triple and Duane Tyree had a pair of doubles in the nightcap. Tyree also had a perfect day at the plate, as he had three hits in three official trips to the plate.

Pittsburgh finds remedy against Mets' Seaver

By The Associated Press

The Pittsburgh Pirates found the right prescription for their flu-bitten manager. But Tom Seaver is still looking for a remedy for an ailing fastball.

Pirates Manager Danny Murtaugh had the flu Sunday and was forced to watch his Pirates on television from a Shea Stadium office.

"That's the best medicine I could've gotten," he said after watching his Buc's smack Seaver and three relievers for 20 hits, including homers by Manny Sanguillen, Richie Hebner and Al Oliver, en route to a 7-0 victory over the Mets.

In Sunday's other National League baseball games, Montreal downed St. Louis 9-5, Houston edged Atlanta 4-3, Philadelphia whipped Chicago 7-3, San Francisco defeated Los Angeles 6-4 and, in a doubleheader, Cincinnati crushed San Diego 10-1 before the Padres earned a split with a 7-2 nightcap triumph.

Hawks lose to Bruins

BOSTON (AP) — Tony Esposito of the Chicago Black Hawks is one of the National Hockey League's all-time great goalies, but he is human — and the Boston Bruins proved it.

Esposito had allowed only four goals in five playoff games and still was receiving kudos for his 46-save performance in a 4-2 victory in the series opener against Boston when he took the ice Sunday for the second game.

Led by Johnny Bucyk, who scored three power-play goals, the Bruins unloaded their heavy artillery for an 8-6 victory to even the best-of-seven series 1-1 before moving to Chicago for games No. 3 and 4 Tuesday and Thursday nights.

"I didn't play well at all," said Esposito, who had only 27 saves and was beaten for one goal on a 75-foot slap shot by Terry O'Reilly. "A lot of those long shots took big dips."

"It was not the best hockey game of the season," Boston Coach Bep Guidolin said. "We won, though, and that's all that counts. I don't give a darn about the score, whether it's 1-0 or 8-6, it's still a win."

The other NHL semifinal series resumes Tuesday night in Philadelphia with the Flyers leading the New York Rangers 1-0 on the strength of a 4-0 victory Saturday night.

In the World Hockey Association semis, the Minnesota Fighting Saints beat the Houston Aeros 4-1 to take a 2-1 lead in their series. Game four of the series will be played next Sunday.

The Toronto Toros took a 1-0 lead over the Chicago Cougars into tonight's game in Toronto in the other semifinal series.

Bucyk, one of the NHL's all-time top scorers, scored with assists from Bobby Orr and Carol Vadnais three times while the high-powered Bruins had a man-advantage in the first two periods.

Birdies fourth playoff hole

Prentice wins ladies' top golf event

PALM SPRINGS, Calif. (AP) — At Augusta, the male Masters champion wears a green coat. At Dinah Shore's

Winner's Circle, Jo Ann Prentice said she dressed in green "because that's all I had clean in my closet."

Jackie Pung, LPGA Hall-of-Famer from Hawaii, adorned Miss Prentice with green leis after the 41-year-old Alabamian "punched a little four-iron" from the tee to within four feet of the flag on the fourth playoff hole. Then she sank the birdie putt to defeat Jane Blalock for the $32,000 first prize.

The richest tournament in the history of women's golf, a total purse of $200,000, is considered by the gals as prestigious to them as the Masters is to the men.

Miss Blalock, the 1972 Winners Circle champion when the first prize was $20,000, had birdied the 157-yard No. 17 on the tournament's 71st hole by hitting to within 18 inches of the flag.

That same hole on the Mission Hill's course came up as the fourth playoff hole and she followed Jo Ann's sensational shot by leaving herself about a 12-footer.

Sandra Haynie, the 54-hole leader, shot a 74, bogeying the 14th when she hit into water. She regained a share of the lead when Miss Prentice three-putted No. 17 from about 45 feet, missing about a three-foot putt. Miss Blalock birdied 18 — with a six-foot putt and the trio, tied at one-over-par 289, returned to the 14th hole to start the sudden death playoff.

Miss Haynie was short on a six-foot putt.

Buckeyes, Indiana split cage classic

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The Ohio College All-Stars played good defense two nights, but good offense only one night, said basketball Coach Jim Burson.

The result was the Buckeye State squad split the two-game Sertoma Basketball Classic with the Indiana College All-Stars.

Ohio won the second game in Ohio State's St. John Arena Saturday night 90-74 after dropping the first game to Indiana at Indianapolis Friday night 97-83.

putt for a bogey on the second playoff hole, leaving Jo Ann and Jane who had 73s to fight for the $14,500 difference as second place money of $21,000 and $14,000 for third was shared by the playoff losers.

Jo Ann's tee shot on the third playoff hole hit a three stake, becoming back into the fairway, and she scrambled to make par. Memory of her three-putt bogey earlier on 17 was still fresh in her mind.

Boston places Knicks on brink of elimination

NEW YORK (AP) — The aura of invincibility that once surrounded the New York Knicks before their wildly enthusiastic home fans — and frightened opposing teams — appears to be disappearing ... at least as far as the Boston Celtics are concerned.

"The crowd yelling is not always to the benefit of the home club," suggested Boston Coach Tom Heinsohn after the swift and brawny Celtics had raced and battled to a 98-91 victory over the Knicks Sunday before a capacity crowd of 19,964 at Madison Square Garden and a national television audience.

"In that situation, our guys tend to get super psyched up," added Heinsohn, who also indicated that the National Basketball Association Eastern Conference final series might be taking on "a reverse home court edge."

The triumph gave the Celtics a solid 3-1 lead in the best-of-seven competition against the Knicks, defending NBA champions, on the brink of elimination from the playoffs. The Celtics could clinch the series with a victory in Game Five Wednesday night at Boston Garden.

"I'm still confident," said Walt Frazier, the Knicks' high scorer with 25 points. "If we can beat them up there again, I don't think they can beat us three straight at Madison Square Garden."

"It's very unusual for us to win two games in New York," said John Havlicek, Boston's captain and leader with 36 points. "They're a very good team at home."

If the Celtics eliminate the Knicks, they likely will face the Milwaukee Bucks for the league title. The Bucks, with a 3-0 lead over Chicago following their 113-90 triumph Saturday, can end their Western Conference final series tonight by beating the Bulls at Milwaukee.

In the American Basketball Association, the New York Nets won the East Division playoff title and qualified for the final round, trouncing the Kentucky Colonels 103-90 Saturday night and completing a 4-0 sweep. In the West, the Utah Stars — minus ailing center Zelmo Beaty — will try to oust the Indiana Pacers tonight in Game Five at Salt Lake City. Utah leads the series 3-1.

Drawings will be held April 24 at 7:30 p.m. on Diamond 1. The entry fee will be $35, plus an $8 ASA fee for unsanctioned teams. Any team interested in entry may contact Jim Kellough, Rt. 10 Black Run Rd. in Chillicothe.

Lee Elder makes history with win at Monsanto Open

PENSACOLA, Fla. (AP) — There's no longer any question about it.

"I will definitely accept an invitation to the Masters and I will definitely play in the Masters," Lee Elder told The Associated Press in the wake of his victory in the Monsanto Open Golf Tournament Sunday.

Cowboys take action on new league

DALLAS (AP) — A rash of injunctions and restraining orders was expected around the National Football League today in the wake of the Dallas Cowboys' midnight action Sunday against the World Football League.

The Cowboys were the second NFL club to take such action, but apparently they were not the last. Cincinnati procured a similar order Friday and Miami managing general partner Joe Robbie indicated the Dolphins might take similar action.

The restraining order signed here by State District Court Judge Ted Aikin prohibits the WFL from dealing with Cowboy players and keeps running back Calvin Hill and quarterback Craig Morton from promoting the WFL teams they have signed with for the 1975 season.

The restraining order, in effect until April 30, also forbids Morton and Hill from attempting to attract other players to either Houston or Hawaii. A WFL spokesman in Los Angeles said there would be no comment until league lawyers study the case.

In recent weeks, the Cowboys have lost Hill, a formidable ground gainer; Morton, a strong-arm passer; and stellar split-end Mike Montgomery to WFL teams. They've also seen three draft choices choose the fledgling WFL.

Opening lead—jack of clubs.

This deal, believe it or not, occurred in a French pair championship.

If you look at all four hands, it is plain to see that South has twelve of the coldest tricks you ever saw, since the trumps are divided 3-2. His only possible loser is a trump, since dummy's diamonds take care of declarer's hearts.

But the unlucky declarer who played the hand went down one,

and how this occurred makes quite a story.

West led the jack of clubs, won by declarer with the king. South then played a low trump to the king and on it George Theron, international star, dropped the queen!

This extraordinary play had the desired effect. Declarer naturally became imbued with the fear that East's queen was a singleton, in which case West's holding would be the J-9-7-2. In that case South could not afford to play a trump back to the ace, because West's J-9 would become tricks and the slam would go down the drain.

So, to guard against a 4-1 division, South entered his hand with a diamond and played a low spade towards the ten. This would hold West to one trick if he had the J-9-7-2. South was not concerned with the possibility of East's having the Q-J alone, for in that case his only loser would be a trump trick.

In the actual case, West won the second trump with the jack, as his partner surprisingly followed with a low trump, and it did not take him long to find the killing club return. Theron ruffed, and the net effect of his remarkable play was that the ice-cold slam went down one.

Water Pills for Weight Loss?

Two of my friends take water pills as regularly as I take aspirin. I can't convince them that this is no way to lose weight.

Miss T.K., Neb.

Dear Miss K.:
The notion that diuretic drugs, or water pills, used for the elimination of fluids is the answer to overweight is entirely false.

There may be a temporary loss of weight, but this readily returns when liquids are consumed.

These drugs are extremely useful in cases of heart, kidney and circulatory disorders. People with hormone imbalances who tend to accumulate fluid in the body tissues may also be given diuretics.

However, these are carefully chosen by the doctor and prescribed for very specific reasons and for very specific durations.

Are styes of the eyelid a sign of vitamin deficiency?

Mrs. E.A., W.Va.

Dear Mrs. A.:
A stye is an infection and inflammation of the tiny glands that lie beneath the skin of the eyelids.

Usually, they start with redness and swelling and then subside with applications of moist, warm dressings.

It is true that styes happen more frequently in people who are undernourished, anemic, and those with vitamin deficiencies. However, people who are well nourished may also develop styes because of eye strain, rubbing the eyes with unclean fingers, handkerchiefs or towels.

It seems that at every business meeting I have an uncontrollable desire to sneeze. What is the best way of suppressing a sneeze?

Mr. C.L., Ark.

Dear Mr. L.:
A sneeze is a good healthy way to get rid of some irritant in the nose. It seems a pity not to enjoy it.

If, for social reasons, an impending sneeze must be stopped, firm pressure above the center of the upper lip will help to control it.

Under no circumstances should a sneeze be stopped by squeezing both nostrils together. Pressure thus built up in the nose can backfire into the Eustachian tubes and injure the eardrum.

Senate sets no-fault debate

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate is ready to debate a bill that would revolutionize the system under which automobile-accident victims are compensated.

The bill, to come up today, would assure that victims are paid for their losses regardless of who is at fault. It would require every car owner to buy insurance to protect himself and his family against losses arising from traffic accidents.

The no-fault bill heads the Senate agenda for the week as Congress returns from a 10-day recess.

Parking issue tops agenda for Council

Parking meter matters will top the agenda for City Council at the regular semi-monthly meeting at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday in the City Office Building. City Manager Dan Wolford said Council members will consider preparing an ordinance for changing parking meter enforcement hours to 8 a.m. until 6 p.m. Tuesday through Saturday and 8 a.m. until 9 p.m. Monday and Friday.

The proposed ordinance will also authorize the conversion of all one-hour meters to two-hour limits with a rate of 5 cents per half hour and 10 cents per hour. Cost estimate is $2.97 per meter.

The proposal also will authorize the purchase from Charles Lee Associates, of Cincinnati, of "dials" for converting 142 one-hour meters to two-hour meters with a rate of 5 cents per half hour and 10 cents per hour. Cost estimate is $2.97 per meter.

Council will also be asked to consider the purchase from Charles Lee Associates of parts necessary to change enforcement plates of 549 parking meters. Cost estimate is 82 cents per meter.

Only one item is legislation appears on the Council agenda. Council will be considering an emergency ordinance to transfer certain funds.

Crowd at annual banquet tops 300

FFA degrees awarded at dinner

More than 300 persons attended the 12th annual Miami Trace High School Future Farmers of America awards banquet held Saturday night at the school.

The banquet is held annually to recognize parents of members and others throughout the county who have contributed to the success of the chapter and to present awards to those individual FFA members who have excelled throughout the past year.

The chapter presented the honorary Chapter Farmer degree, which is the highest award given to a non-FFA member, to Curtis Fleisher, principal of Miami Trace. Fleisher has always cooperated with the FFA chapter in its numerous activities and the members acknowledged this with the presentation of the award.

The two top chapter awards presented during the banquet were won by a Jeffersonville brother and sister, Scott and Beth Jenks, children of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Jenks. Scott, a senior, received the coveted Star Chapter Farmer award, which annually is presented to the outstanding member of the sophomore, junior or senior FFA class. Beth in turn received the Star Greenhand award which is presented to outstanding member of the freshman class. The awards are based on leadership, scholarship, character and FFA activities.

OTHER AWARDS presented at the banquet included the FFA Foundation awards. The awards are made possible by numerous donors in Fayette County to the Ohio FFA Foundation.

Recipients of the awards were Joel Vannorsdall, livestock production sheep; Scott Jenks, accounting and livestock production swine; Jim Eltzroth, dairy; Dave Streitenberger, crop production and soil and water management; Don Hutchens, agricultural mechanics and extemporaneous public speaking; John Mayer, home electricity and home improvement; Steve Mowery, agriculture placement; Bill Schaefer, prepared public speaking; Jessica Pendleton, creed; Jim McCoy and Don Davis, top fruit salesmen; Cheryl Hale, third place fruit salesman; Pat Brundage, top seed salesman; Schaefer and Randy Witzel, second and third place seed salesmen.

Scholarship awards were presented to Brandt Dunn and Yvonne McCarty, freshmen; Don Davis, sophomore; Jeff Smithson, junior, and Scott Jenks, senior.

Jim McCoy, Bill Schaefer and Scott Jenks won awards for their project books and shop project awards were won by Keith Montgomery, Wayne Jinks and Gary Taylor.

FFA leadership awards were presented to Jeff Wilt, Randy Beekman, Beth Jenks, Yvonne McCarty and Jay Pendleton, all freshmen; Jim McCoy and Jeff Schlichter, sophomores; Bill Schaefer, Bill Mayer and Bret Taylor, juniors, and Scott Jenks, Mike Coe, Don Hutchens, Gary Taylor and John Mayer, seniors.

CERTAINLY ONE of the highlights of the banquet was the address presented by Gerald Reid, state FFA reporter. Reid, a Miami Trace High School graduate and local FFA member, holds one of the highest offices in the state association. The state FFA reporter encouraged chapter members to reach and strive for the highest goal possible throughout life.

Other awards announced at the banquet which will be presented at the state convention April 26 and 27 at Columbus included the Miami Trace chapter as one of the top 10 chapters in the state; Scott Jenks, as a state officer candidate and one of the top three in state accounting contest, and Gerald Reid, one of the top five FFA members in the state. It was also announced that the state FFA degree will be awarded to Mike Coe, John Mayer, Bill

This year the FFA chapter presented appreciation awards to John Bernard, of MTHS faculty, Mrs. Dan Schlichter and Mrs. James Cornell, who were chaperones for the chapter's trip to Kansas City last fall, and Miss Sandy Kellenbarger and Miss Betsy Hartman, the FFA secretaries.
